An effort to organize community singing will be made tonight, when a program will be given in the Bursar's office at 6.16, according to an announcement in the "Diplomatic Record." The program will consist of several numbers, including a chorus by the American Choral Society, a solo song by Miss Helen Buchanan, and a recitation by W. M. A. E. M. M. The program will be under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Manas, in charge of the Naval Unit. Inasmuch as Barracks No. 2 has become the most "seaworthy" of all the barracks, Barracks No. 3, formerly the Sigma Chi house, will be occupied as a temporary barrack for the sailors until such time as the usual barrack is available. The purpose of this temporary change was to enable the sailors to see the pictures, which are to be shown tonight and continue until all of the enlisted men's regular pay will have been issued. The presence of the naval officers will be requested. Mr. J. T. Wood is the chief organizer of the program.

Last night's entertainment in the audience of the Y.M.C.A. activities on the campus for the past two months. Large and enthusiastic audiences attended the show, and all the standing room in the hall was occupied. The main feature of the evening was the production of the film, "Fighting." This was accompanied by a descriptive lecture on the subject by Mr. J. W. Owens, United States Army Medical Corps. Mr. Owens, who has been on active service in India and Europe, is the author of the picture that has been shown. The lecture dealt with the physical and mental welfare of men in service, with the health of the crew, and the work of the American Red Cross. Some of the scenes shown were of the special preparations made for the care of the wounded man in enemy territory, and others of the treatment given to the soldiers. Numerous stories from his own experience were related. The scenes were shown to emphasize and illustrate the permanent effects of such a war as the war on the field. The pictures were shown in the presence of the Art. Board of the Red and Blue and was a meeting to be held on Thursday night. The picture was shown at the Y.M.C.A. Hall. The Bursar and his staff were present, and all of the officers of the Red and Blue were on hand. The picture was shown in the presence of the Art. Board of the Red and Blue.
