Daily contact the newcomers through the most important part of their University career. It was evident from the very nature of the instruction that written and traditional methods were impossible.

To suddenly offer college life to—let us say—ten or twenty of whom college life this year, is a challenge to change the usual atmosphere. No more than any have been taken to combat this difficulty. The need of this change of activities is absolutely necessary. The result is not spirit in every sense of the word can thrive at an army post.

For the welfare, pleasure and enjoyment of students now enjoying camp life, let us do our duty to support all future efforts to re-establish activities. For the remaining participation in historic traditions it is our duty to apply ourselves diligently. For the sake of the true college life the Y. M. C. A., must, let us say, pass on campus, classroom and athletic to the point of activities in war conditions.

CABINET OF UNSURAL INTEREST

Weekly Describes New War Courses Now Given at University.

Last week's issue of the Pennsylvania Gazete appeared on the campus yesterday, being slightly belated on account of labor troubles. The leading editorial was a challenge to the campus on the war, a great opportunity. It states that outside of the War Department's revision of the curriculum, there was another weightier force which affected a decided influence upon the courses, that of the enrollment of members of the faculty. In this regard, over 25 per cent of the faculty are now in the service.

Among the articles is an editorial which is an Americanization of the War Department of College Students, written by an engineer from the University, the inventor of a trench шапки, adored by all Poetry Presenting Major H. W. Hillman, a well-known college for which he has been in America. A good deal of the material was given to the public in advance of the actual meeting, as an appeal to the public to support the work of the A. A. Association, the regular department of Alumni News, and the other features of the edition.

ALUMNI REGISTER APPEARS.

Records of University's Generals in Revolutionary, Mexican and Civil Wars Described.

Number one of this year's volume of the Alumni Register, a monthly published by the General Alumni Society of the University, came from the press yesterday. The list of officers was headed by "A. University Message," by President Smith and Thomas W. Holman, president of the Alumni Society, which contained an appeal to every alumni to report the University Fund. Perhaps the most interesting of all the articles was one entitled "University Generals," in which descriptions of the life of some of the great generals of the country who have graduated from the University are delineated. Among them are many familiar names, such as Anthony Wayne, Class of 1782; Peter Muhlenberg, Class of 1744; Thomas McKean, Class of 1766; Jacob Brown, Class of 1790; George Cadwalader, Class of 1790; George Cadwalader, Class of 1792; John C. Calhoun, Class of 1792; Thomas Cadwalader, Class of 1792; George Cadwalader, Class of 1793; George McClellan, Class of 1823; George H. McClellan, Class of 1844; John G. Forbes, Class of 1867; Daniel W. Crouse, Class of 1886; Montgomery C, Meigs, Class of 1820, Harvey C. Elbert, Class of 1854; Lewis H. Carpenter, Class of 1856; Henry Todd, Jr., Class of 1890; and Henry W. Thornton, Class of 1891. The editorial comment dealt primarily with the Alumni organization and the University under the S. A. T. C. system. Among the other features were an appreciation of the late Dr. Nathan B. Holmes, by William Fisk, Jr. of the Towne Scientific School; "Grapes" by a poem by Herman C. Judson, '11 Arch., letters from men in service, and a student letter by George Redfield, Jr., '19 Arch., the student editor of the Daily Pennsylvanian.
