MEN IN U.S.N.U. TO APPLY FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE FROM DUTY

Some men in the Naval Unit who applied for immediate release from duty are reported to have been rejected by the Board of Inductees. Among those who applied are Captain Robert E. Bonde of the University of Pennsylvania. The Board of Inductees is expected to meet again on Monday to consider the cases of men who were rejected.

ARMY DEMOBILIZATION PROCEEDING RAPIDLY

Captain Roberts Beneke Detr( of the University of Pennsylvania for Ordinance Work.

EXAMINING STAFF INCREASED

Actual demobilization of the A. T. C. Unit is now well under way and the examining staff of the Army medical officers yesterday increased 161 men. Those who failed to pass the rapid examination will be sent to the army hospital, where they will be treated until their physical defects are corrected.

Two additional officers who were taken from the Board of Inductees and were issued with a notice that they will be returned to the University after the first company is examined, will be placed on the list. A detail of twenty men was selected for the University from the Board of Inductees in its work. The examining staff is increased by the addition of the United States Training Department in its work.

Christmas Entertainment for Out-Of-Town Students

Philadelphia families to take care of strangers, friends and guests. Groups to Fight.

Many people in the church who help the camps to plan and to conduct the Christmas evening are now in the United States. They will be back in time for the Christmas dinner at their homes for Christmas dinners. Plans are also under way to entertain them for the remaining part of the vacation period. Students of the University of Pennsylvania, who have not to work, are expected to return to the University and to unite in their efforts to entertain the men. The students of the University of Pennsylvania, in Houston Hall, will be entertained by the Christmas Association, office in Houston Hall.

Active and members of the school are attending their discussions of the ideals of American Manhood. The future of the United States is dependent upon the ideals of American Manhood. The ideals of American Manhood are to be the foundation of all future manliness. The ideals of American Manhood are to be the foundation of all future manliness.

Punch Bowl Candidates to be Signed Up To-Day

Candidates for the Punch Bowl board will be signed up today in Houston Hall. The board will be established by December 31. All candidates interested in the work are required to sign up for the board by December 31, where representatives of the board will explain the work. There are unusual opportunities for those who are interested in the work and are willing to spend a few hours each week.

Planes to be Made Suitable for Use in the United States Planes, which have been made in the United States, are expected to be suitable for use in the United States. The planes will be shipped to the United States and will be used for the purpose of training aviators. The training of aviators will be carried on in the United States.

Chesapeake and Ohio's plans for out-of-town students are reported to be progressing rapidly. The plans are expected to be completed by the end of the year.

Red and Blue Make Calls for Business

With a view to starting the mobilization of the Red and Blue units early in the new year, the mobilization of the Red and Blue units is expected to be completed by the end of the year. Although a solution whatever can be made of the influence of the students for Republican Class. Officers, the "steer-meter" methods used by some of the participants are certainly to be condemned. There was campaigning of the kind that cannot be justified on any grounds, and it is reported that letters were spread about the campus telling whom to vote for. The method of advertising is an innovation on the average, and reflects little credit on the instigators of the schemes.

It is most unfortunate that such multiplication of campus politics should be made at a time when the class is trying to unite itself. It is not so much a question of which men are elected as officers. That is of great importance. The main object is that such organizations and "dictators" split the class into factions and not make a strong united organization to participate in the class. The class will only benefit if such a ticket places its own selfish desires above the welfare of the class. Such campaigning can be quelled only when the voters begin to understand that there is no use in using unfair methods.

It is too late to do anything in this matter as the ball has been done and the election is over. But men who wish to have the class not be divided and aligned. This does not reflect on the class as a whole, but merely on the men who are not yet educated enough to use unfair methods. For the welfare of the University, it is to be hoped that such a display of class politics is not repeated by the other classes.

Several educational experts have voiced the opinion that the S. A. T. C. might have been inclined all the way up till the end of the year into the financial crisis of the election. As one comments, the S. M. Halley, takes it as a matter of course.

The idea of the ADS (the American Dramatic Society) that the S. A. T. C. have given the country is the opinion that there will be no public military training in universities and colleges of the universities and there is nothing to say about it. It has been demonstrated to the serious fact that army officers to learn as a soldier is a job sufficient to take up all the energy of any man, and it has been demonstrated to educational officials that if a man has a university education is a job sufficient of taking all the energy and patience of any one man. It is impossible for a man to get a general or professional education and the training of a soldier. Under the same time. If the S. A. T. C. organize both jobs, it will be more important.

To say that West Point is an examination in the rule is not correct. In the class takes the military, the environment and the taste, is such as to make the change of the environment and the taste, in the class. Further, the students at West Point are officers. And, when they divide in employment two West Point grades, it was because some of the students of the first grade have joined in some part of this division. That is an act against universal military service for which I must be discussed or other reasons. It is merely a statement of the students of the belief that college education and military training cannot be taken together with justice and liberty. Nor is it an argument against the decision of the University.

It is wasting good time to give details as to the diversity and quality of the hothashes in "BARNEY'S XMAS SHOP".

CONTINUE REVIEW OF RED AND BLUE FOOTBALL TEAM

Expect Decision Shortly by Athlete Association in Respect to Award of Letters.

Several more members of the "Varsity" football team are discussed in this issue, and on Friday of this week daylight additional players will be nominated until the lists is complete. A action has yet been taken by the Athetic Association regarding the award of "Varsity" letters, but it is expected a decision will soon be reached.

Joseph R. Kurau, '20, of San Antonio, Texas, last season filled a regu-rar halfback position on the 'Varsity eleven and received his letter. In copany with Berry and Light, at last year's team, Kurau became a good line plunger. This season he has shown only regular available, and although he got off to a good start, he was defeated by his own form and hampered the opposing forward in the last few contests. The strongest point of attack was the center of the line. Kurau is a member of the Beta Beta Tau fraternity.

George Smith, '20, a former minute of Georgetown University, quarterback for a year at that institution, and this season filled the same position for the Red and Blue. Smith was on the side lines until late in the first quarter more games, when he was put in as a substitute, and his showing made an instant impression on the coaches. From that time that started against the team until the end of the season. He was a fast player and was especially good on end runs. He took every advantage of his interference and was a hard man to down.

Richard Hillard, '11, Wh. prepared at Lawrenceville, and last season played end on the Dartmouth Freshman team. Shortly after the season began he reported to Coach Holleback, and his speed, quickness and feet, tackling soon brought him into prominence. Akishita la a nasive of Japan, and since he has been in this country has played football for one year. He is still inexperienced, but with his ability to keep the planner of the game, combined with his speed and tackling, he shows promise of becoming an excellent end.

Herman Harrey, '21, Wh. pitched for the Freshman baseball team last season and made an enviable record.
This season he reported for the "Varsity eleven, and his defensive work attracted the attention of the coaches. He was tried out at halfback, where he proved a success. On the offense he put on the intermediate half and carried the ball in good fashion. His gains were made on off-tackle plays and end runs. On the defense he was the best man on the squad. Harrey should prove a valuable man for next season's team.

L. D. Locke, '8 Mod., prepared for a year at Harvard College before entering the University. He played a line position on the varsity team and last season was a member of the Red and Blue "Varsity" squad. This year he was placed at guard, where he remained until he was injured. On the defense he was both a good tackler and the occasion he was put in at tackle and finished the season in that position. He played a hard, fair game in the line, and by his good detensive work bolstered up the team greatly.
