WISCONSIN HAS COURSE

FOR WOMEN SECRETARIES

For the training of secretaries, especially young women, a four-year course has been established at the University of Wisconsin. This course aims to answer the demand for trained and capable assistants for business and other executives. It is run in connection with the Course in Commerce of the Institution.

The course, which is known as the General Secretarial course, and leads to the B.A. degree, is a group of special courses similar to other special groups offered by the department, such as Banking and Finance, Accounting, Advertising, and Marketing. Transportation and Public Utilities and subjects more closely allied to secretarial work.

Students will be admitted to the secretarial course after two years of fundamental studies in the course of Commerce. The last two years will be devoted to more advanced work on subjects of Finance and Management.

The course also provides for a certain number of electives of an academic nature.

Greek Official Speaks Here.

Much interest surrounds the lecture to be given by John N. Metaxa in the auditorium of Houston Hall at 8 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Dr. Metaxa, who was formerly Governor of Babylonia, and is now in this country as an official representative of the Greek Government, will speak here on "The Greeks in Macedonia and Thrace."

Plan to Retain V. M. C. A. Hut.

Although the V. M. C. A. Hut, A. P. C. unit at the University of Wisconsin has been disbanded, the "V. M. C. A. Hut on the campus is still maintained, having been turned into a "student center. The V. M. C. A. has decided to maintain a secretary at the building permanently, and the work is now going on with much enthusiasm as before.

Winter Sports at Wisconsin.

Classes in winter sports have been organized for the coeds of the University of Wisconsin. The girls receive credit for the sport they are taking, and all students interested may sign up either this or next week Gymnasium credit will be given for the course, and the course continues upon a two-hour a week schedule until this time, no dual credit being given for the course, and the work is now going on with much enthusiasm as before.

Boxing Case to Start.
