SOPHOMORES TO MAKE BIG DRIVE FOR DUES

Complete Reorganization of Class Takes Form Followed by Re-elections

NEW-ELGIBLE MEN RESIGNED

As most of the men in the Class of 1920 have already been designated as sophomores by the Central Office, the Sophomore Class organization was finally set up on Thursday at 1 o'clock. President Tilden is particularly applicant for every member of the class to attend this meeting; you should know in many activities which class to which you will be assigned. By this system you can have the same in the same successful manner that many men were assigned to the same last year. President Tilden has also declared that owing to the event six class sports and the last fact, so many men paid their dues last year's splendid record was possible. Each member of the class should remember the motto: "Stay in your place, because we support the class by paying his dues immediately, and you should vote for classes when elected until the class will be elected.

REDUCTIONS TO STUDENTS

Reduced rates for University students have been secured for the performance of "The Bohemian Girl," being given by the Philadelphia Opera Society, at the Constitution Hall, Philadelphia, on Thursday at 8 o'clock. This will be the season of the opera world, and the excellent cast is headed by Mme. McElroy, the well-known soprano, in the title role.

The opening scene was a premiere with a audience of a generation ago, and his pleasing manner, added to the fact that it is of the comparatively few form in English, should ensure it renewed success. Weiss Lehrer made the opening address. The Philadelphia Orchestra will furnish the music.

All seats will be sold at half price, and may be obtained at The University Bookstore or at the Constitution Hall office daily from 1 to 4:30. As the place is not located near the Hall of Students, no balloon seats will sell for 75 cents, and tickets in the orchestra and chorus will cost 25 or 50 cents, depending on location.

Sophomore Theater Members

The "14-9" and "16-7" members have been named for the Sophomore Drama Team, and the65% successful work of the British Army which I am responsible for. We are always up on this subject, and the British Army has been very much in the public eye of late in General Tilden's playroom. In his college days, he was a great wagon fan and was also active in many undergraduate and social circles, being a member of the Pennsylvania Club.

JUNIORS MEET FRIDAY TO COMMENCE REORGANIZATION

At the first step in the reorganization of the class, the President's Executive has called a meeting for 1 o'clock on Friday, in the Student Union, when nominations will be made for new officers. The Executive Team suffered heavily from enrollments in the senior class, but those members who have returned to the University, it is expected, will be present at President's Executive next week, when a large number of the former class will be in attendance.

Beginning today, an active campaign for the election of candidates begins, and it is hoped to raise the necessary amount of money in the same successful manner that many men were assigned to the same last year. President Tilden has also declared that owing to the event six class sports and the last fact, so many men paid their dues last year's splendid record was possible. Each member of the class should remember the motto: "Stay in your place, because we support the class by paying his dues immediately, and you should vote for classes when elected until the class will be elected.

PROVOST TO SPEAK AT DINNER

With the return to normal conditions, it has been decided by the Provost Committee to revive the annual "Ball of the Provost," which was necessarily abandoned during the military regime. This will be an informal affair, which is the principal social event of the year and which happens a week before the commencement of the fall quarter of the 1920 Class, on Thursday, November 28. It is expected to be the largest and most impressive event of the year. The money raised will be turned over to the University, after having been collected from an officers' fund, and will be used to maintain the library and study section of the University, where the students can study and attend lectures.

SMALL TALK ON THE OPERA

The students were greatly interested in the opera, and the members of the class who were present left the meeting feeling that the team will be given all the proper care and attention it deserves. The opera will be given on Wednesday night for both the "Tale and the Provost."

Night Editors of This Issue

Early in December, as the Pennsylvania Boarded Express was racing over the rails in Northwestern Indiana on its way to the terminal at Chicago, a first lieutenant came into the parlor of a private. The conversation. For a short time the train was racing over the rails in Northwestern Indiana on its way to the terminal at Chicago. The lieutenant came into the parlor of a private. His name was Schaefer, Charles Parlin, William S. Keever.

This little incident, which occurred during the University year, was witnessed by many former members who were at Pennsylvania before the war turned things upside down who will have vivid memories of this time. To the present student, however, a word of explanation may be necessary.

The Christian Association is the center of the religious activities of the campus. It maintains the University House downtown, where students meet with and teach those who do not have equal advantages and comforts of life. Such students as these, the association has been making of many of a student who has come in contact with real philosophy.

Another great work that is done is the University Camp, at Green Lawn, where students act as counselors for the city boys who are brought there for a week's outing. Any student who has been to the University House in the summer will have the opportunity to see the good work of the C. A. there.

The University House and the University Camp are two examples of the activities conducted by the Christian Association. Its scope is not limited to Honolulu Street; it extends all around the city, and even to far-off China.

The present campaign is conducted especially for the new men, and the Freshmen will find it hard to do their best. He will be a fine representative of the work of the Christian Association. He will find that he is the best of the right hand and will have his college life strengthened and enriched.

WILL HOLD ENGINEERING SMOKER ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Prevent and Dean Evans Will Speak on the Reception Given Previous to Scientific Freshmans.

As the first departmental event of the term, the annual reception and smoker for the Freshman Engineers will be given by the Whittier Engineering Society and the Civil Engineering Society at 8:30 on Friday night. In the Engineering Building. Canyon held at the opening of the college year; this affair this year is to be joined by the R. A. T. C. and is now given for the purpose of bringing the class of 1919 men to the appreciation, and to develop the spirit which the S. A. T. C. so effectually quelled.

Among the speakers will be the Provost, who will extend the University's greetings. The Freshmen, and Dean Evans, of the Towne Scientific School. It is hoped that Mr. Penner, Professor Pennard and Professor Stache, leading respects of the Electrical, Mechanical, and Civil Engineering departments, will make remarks on subjects relative to their work. In addition, Professor Chewell and Stalge have promised to speak.

Captain Spitzer, a recently returned veteran, will lecture on his experiences on the Western front, while John M. Kittel, the football and baseball star, and Alexander Wray of football fame, are expected to be on hand to entertain their troops.

All through the evening there will be refreshments and a profusion of smoking. The Freshman, and Engineering Societies will provide mints, and Wrigley's is expected to furnish light refreshments, and a peggy piano player will be on hand.

The Reception Committee, consisting of Cox, Ramsey, Lucas, Berry, Ward, Sulloway. Martin, Barker, and Calkins, with Peet as chairman, expect at least 250 Engineers to be present.

There will be a meeting of the committee at 10:30 to-morrow morning in the Whitney room.

The Whitney Engineering Society has started a campaign for the annual one-dollar fee. This morning at 10:30, in the Whitney room, there will be a meeting of the committee in charge of this work, which consists of Esler, the chairman; Koettser and Ferm's seniors; Ten Broek, Cook, Calvins and Morse; juniors; Hearn, Kirkpatrick, Sterling, and S. P. Whiting; freshmen, and Keating and Fillmore, president.

Ambitious Reporter-Misleads Teacher for Wounded Hero.

In order that a bit of very clever acting may not be the cause of too much misunderstandings, it has been deemed necessary to explain one of the acci- dents that occurred last Saturday's Pennsylvania. At the annual entertainment of the Pittston High School, one of the big features on the program was a little comedy by Chas. L. Beaudoin, '14, in which the for- mer moderator appeared as a war vet- eran, wearing the gold bars of a sec- ond lieutenant.

Allied Olympiad Planned.
Plans for an Allied Olympiad are being made by the American Army, in cooperation with the who also agree to be present in Paris. General Pershing, who is interested in the movement, has sent personal letters to the commanding-chief of the armed forces of all nations with whom the Americans have been associated, in- viting the officers and men to partici- pate. The French Government has already given its approval.
