One of the important Senior meetings of the college year will be held this evening, when the numbers of the original members are matriculated in the Junior and Sophomore classes. Tonight's meeting is a splendid opportunity for renewing old friendships and for cementing more firmly than ever the paternal bonds of 1919. C. A. DRIVE RECEIVES UNANIMOUS SUPPORT

Weekly Discussion Groups to Start

Next Week with Interesting and Varied Program.

COMMITTEE MEETING TO-DAY

Preliminary reports from the various departmental captains indicate that the Christian Association's drive is being met with an almost unanimous response. Officers of the various associations have expressed their satisfaction at the response of the student body, both financially and otherwise.

Interdepartmental meetings in the campaign were resorted to yesterday with pleasing results. It is felt that this method will reach every student in the University of Pennsylvania, and will be continued until that end has been accomplished.

A meeting of the Central Committee for the campaign will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock, in Room 12, Houston Hall. At this time reports will be received and a check made in the students thus far interviewed. Final plans for the last days of the drive will be laid out at this meeting. All members of the Executive Committee and the Committee of One Hundred are urged to attend. Captains are requested to see that their assistance is present.

Much emphasis is being laid on the weekly discussions of the groups to be conducted by the association. The course is designed essentially for the purpose of bringing before the students the Christian issues involved in present world conditions. It is a "single course, covering Bible, social, and missionary study around a simple idea."

It will aim to bring the men to decide a momentous question from a worldly point of view.

Groups of a dozen or fifteen will be organized, meeting one hour every Thursday, starting next week. In Houston Hall and in the various departmental buildings. During the evening, the groups will be held in the fraternity and dormitory halls and will be held by members of the faculty, by ministers, alumni and students. Much time will be devoted to discussions, each man being given an opportunity to express his own opinions on the subject at hand. Each group will be conducted by the leader, in which they will receive material for the work, and in which the methods to be employed will be discussed.

The course will deal especially with the recent processes of world democracy. It will extend over a period of twelve weeks, each of the following subjects being given successively each week:

1. What is Involved in World Democracy.
2. What are the tests of good citizenship?
4. What are the tests of good citizenship in a Democracy?
5. The Aim of World Democracy. How are Christlikeness and Democracy related?
6. What is the hope of the future?

Columbia Lost 150 Men in War. At a recent ceremony in honor of the Columbia undergraduates and officers who were killed in the war, a service was held in the University Library. President Nicholas Murray Butler, in his address, gave the news that at least twenty-one men have been killed, since the list was last made public.

100 Free Tours to the Battlefields of France

A wonderful opportunity for teachers and students and heads of organizations. Only a little energy necessary to qualify and win.

The 100 tourists will go as the Guests of The Philadelphia Press. Every necessary traveling expense will be paid—steamer passage, railroad fare, hotel bills, automobile trips, etc.

They will follow President Wilson's footsteps over famous battlefields where our boys—especially the boys from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland—won lasting fame for America, and wrote the last, brillant, thrilling chapter of the Great War.

Paris, which was saved from Hun invasion by the "Devil Dogs", Chateau-Thierry; St. Mihiel; Belleau Woods—these are a few of the places which they will visit, guided by veteran soldiers who fought over the very ground.
