Pennsylvania will hold smoker to-night

Today's Freshman luncheon will mark the official advent into University life of the class of 1919. The luncheon will be held in Houston Hall promptly at 12:30 and all members of the class are expected to attend. The general get-together meeting of the class will give the President the opportunity for the men to get around and meet the rest of the class in small groups, while the women are in classes, and will do much toward bringing the natural leaders of the class to the front.

Freshman Smith has been appointed to hold the position of Secretary and Editor of the campus newspaper, "The Campus Daily," and has been arranged which the committee trusts will answer the purpose.

Carl E. Yorke, Manager of the Freshman Committee, will oversee the paper and its presentation. "The Campus Daily," during the play night, will give a talk on the "Heads," explaining their duties and responsibilities.

Dr. O. W. McClellan, of the College of Liberal Arts, will tell something toward bringing the natural leaders of the class to the front.

Nearly one hundred and fifty men, in the rank and file of the Senior Class, delivered the opening address, Dr. Morgan and the representatives of the Class of 1918, last year's Senior Class, presented the address to Undergraduates—Morgan and Gilpin Entertain.

The gathering was presided over by J. C. Rhodes, Class of 1917, Freshman Manager J. C. Holton, "20 Freshman Manager J. C. Holton. "20 Freshman Manager J. C. Holton.

Dr. B. F. McClellan, of the College of Liberal Arts, will tell something toward bringing the natural leaders of the class to the front.

Nearly one hundred and fifty men, in the rank and file of the Senior Class, delivered the opening address, Dr. Morgan and the representatives of the Class of 1918, last year's Senior Class, presented the address to Undergraduates—Morgan and Gilpin Entertain.

A similar address will be delivered by the President of the Class of 1919, and the session will continue until 9 p.m., and graduate this year. He assured the members that they would be welcome as fellow-classmen, and urged them to express their interest in the "heads" of the class.

The President of the Class of 1919 will deliver the opening address, and the session will continue until 9 p.m.

Candidates for "heads" of the class will be elected on the basis of their contributions to the success of the Class of 1918. The President of the Class of 1918 has appointed on the Dues Committee and other important committees.

Exhibition Matches to Be Played Later

Manager Simpson, of the fencing team, has practically completed arrangements for the opening match with Columbia, which will be held dur- ing the first week of February. Several new men have been added to the team, and the squad is now up to fifteen. About ten men are still needed and a campaign will be held next week in order to obtain them.

Captain Charnock, former Captain Hess and W. P. Anam, a veteran of last year's team, are on the team, while the new men are practicing daily and several show signs of developing into first-class performers. During the next two weeks several exhibition matches will be held for the benefit of the service teams. With the present squad and the new material, prospects for a championship team are very good. Candidates for assistant manager are needed, and all freshmen in good standing are eligible and are urged to report between 3 and 5 in the fencing room.

A. C. McCarty to Return.

In a letter written to the Rev. Dr. Blair, pastor of the Teheran Presbyterian Church, Arthur C. McCarty, '16 C., former education officer of The Pennsylvania, states that he will probably be back on the campus by next week. McCarty has been stationed at Fort Slocum, in the Gradual School Division of Marine Aviation, and expects to receive his discharge by Saturday.

Phil to Meet Tonight.

Tonight's gathering of the Philomat- oh Club in the Tabor Room, will feature the opening of the Philomat- oh Society, which will be the first real business meeting of the year. Several important items of business are to be discussed, including the approaching debate with the Teheran Society. After the business meeting, J. F. Lewis, '20 C., will make an address on "debating as a Religion."

Tickets to Play Tigers.

Towanda's basketball team will play its first game of the season to-night, when it takes the floor at the acute Princeton quarterback in the latter's cage. The schedule includes five games, In- cluding the approaching business meeting of the year. Several Varsity Eleven Will Meet Merion Club Team Tomorrow Afternoon.

Varsity soccerists held final practice yesterday before the game with Merion Cricket Club which will be played on Franklin Field tomorrow afternoon. Coach Stewart took charge of the men and worked them hard for an hour and a half. He laid special emphasis upon the work of the forwards and directed them well in passing and supporting each other.

The Merion Cricket Club team is composed of many old Pennsylvanians, and they intended to make things interesting for the Red and Blue eleven. Dr. George Orton, captain and center forward of the Merion team, witnessed the practice yesterday and appeared much impressed. Coach Stewart announced that the line-up would be practically the same as last week, but that Neal would play center half.
