Professional Detectives Hat on Trail of Originators of Painting

Compton offers.

Before twenty-four hours have passed the campus police mystery will have been completely cleared up. The Pennsylvania can make this announcement because the courageous, energetic and energetic work of its detectives, Directed by the very capable and capable brains of the members of the board, has been so successful that the Van Vlack has never been recorded in the solution of the most fascinating mystery that the campus police has pursued for the campus for years.

Placed in the Legion Hall and the Holton Club by unknown persons, the cases for two were selected early Thursday morning. Printed in blue letters in each case was the question, "Are you a red or a white?" surrounded by question marks, stands in the center.

Starting a few minutes after the appearance of the placards, many hands of the Pennsylvania before they had worked on the case and day, and now in following a trail that will end within a few years, this case of a laborious, and laborious adventure in the United States to work on the case, it was determined after thorough and thorough search for answers, that the professional detectives were determined to do the work in a professional manner. The key to the case of a laborious, and laborious adventure in the United States to work on the case, it was determined after thorough and thorough search for answers, that the professional detectives were determined to do the work in a professional manner.

Now we are following a trail that will end within a few years, this case of a laborious, and laborious adventure in the United States to work on the case, it was determined after thorough and thorough search for answers, that the professional detectives were determined to do the work in a professional manner.

MANDOULIN club active again.

R. L. Weaver, director of the Glen and Mandolin Clubs, conducted the first rehearsal of the Mandolin Club yesterday at the Alpha Chi Rho house. Many old members of the club have returned to college and will form the nucleus of this year's aggregation. A schedule is being arranged by Graduate Manager, J. R. Hart, Jr., and will be announced soon. Concerts will be given in the campus affairs and at the alumni clubs at Baltimore, Md., New York City and Chicago.

Director Weaver is planning a campus and several Philadelphia concerts to be given in the near future. Although the Musical Clubs are late in forming this season, Rev. Hart pointed out that, as most of the members are experienced, little practice will be necessary to have the club up to its usual standard.

Fencing Team improving.

Chuck Turner's fencing squad has been improving rapidly, and now shows promise of being trained into a championSHIP TEAM. With several veterans back as nucleus around which to form the full and strong team, Turner is greatly pleased. He does, however, believe that there is still more promising material in the University, which would be brought to light. Practice is held daily at 5 o'clock in the fencing room, in the east wing of Wrightman.

Lafayette Trims Lehigh.

Lafayette's basketball team, after twisting the colors of Lehigh five in a lively and brilliant game played here on the former's floor. The final score was 27-17. The second half was the defensive work of both teams was so strong that each team scored but two points. A scoring rally in the latter half of the second period gave Moravian a 17-16 lead.

Army and Navy North to Battle.

That the baseball teams of the Army and Navy academies will meet again later on May 31 has been practically settled. This re-establising the rivalry between the two military institutions which only died out in the last year from the campus because it appears that the Navy has had the better of the diamond contest, while the Navy has a slight advantage on the gridiron.
