Mandolin Club to Rehearse.

Plan to Have Two Trios and Joint Concert with Ambrose.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be a rehearsal of the Mandolin Club, at 4:30 Penn street. This is especially important, as the instrumental organization, as well as the Glee Club, is expected to provide music at the undergraduate reception on Monday night.

Nearly the whole of the 1919 Mandolin Club is again in the University, and a very successful season is expected. Trials for Philomus, N. J., and Wilson College, at Chambersburg, Pa., have been planned and numerous concerts in the city and on the campus. The season will be ended with a joint concert with Ambrose, on the campus, at the end of March.

Many Students Accommodated.

Through the effective work of the Employment Bureau, conducted by the Christian Association, many students who were apparently in need of assistance have been helped out of their difficulties. Accommodations for 96 students were provided for during the present week, and many applications on file will be filled early next week.

Law School Booming.

Through the gradual internationalization of the Army and Navy there has been a great increase of students into the Law School. The number of students at the present term is now forty-six, all of whom have already been back this term. The latter admissions are C. H. Berlin, of Germany, B. A. E. Berlin, of Pennsylvania, and C. G. O. Berlin, of Philadelphia.
