SWIMMERS PREPARE FOR APPROACHING CONTESTS

Captain Elderkin Plunge Over Seventy Feet, Registering Best Mark of Season.

With only four weeks to go before the final of the swimming season, the third weekly contest was held last night. Small was the largest number of novice, having a total of eleven. All bills have been turned in. The winner was titled for second honors with eight tied next week.

Captain Elderkin, famous as a plunger last year, and who holds the New England record of 72 feet 9 inches, won his event from scratch with 71 feet 6 inches. Sten came second in this event with 71 feet 6 inches, including a 39-foot handicap. Kohler and Monheim both placed 79 feet, the former with a 2-foot and the latter with an 11-foot handicap.

Five new men entered the novice handicap last year, which was won by Small, whose time was 18 seconds. Patterson and Leamer tied for second place, both covering the distance in 19.4 seconds. The 80-yard dash was run for handicap, the best actual time being 27 seconds. Elevens, the winner, was placed at 14.55 seconds. and Livingston second at 19.8.

More curved out the honors in the fancy diving contest. Walker was helped someone in this event. The entire event was won by Weimer, who was timed at 21.8, 10.4 seconds, a second slower than last week’s time. Elevens call to keep the 300-pound event, making the course in 45.4 seconds.

According to the rules of the Intercollegiate Swimming Association, Phi Beta Kappa will be eligible to compete in Intercollegiate meets this year. The first event of interest, for which Coach Kester is preparing, is with the Cusladians, at Westphall Hall, on March 1. Eight men have reported to Manager Henry in an effort to try for the positions of assistant managers. H. W. Rounds, 21 Wh., S. D. Moore, 21 Wh., H. W. Rentschler, 21 Wh., A. D. Goetting, 21 Wh., N. Patterson, 21 Wh., and W. J. Detweiler, 21 Wh.

C. A. TO HEAR WAR HERO.

Weekly Discussion Groups to be Held All Day Today.

Contributing its series of weekly meetings, the Christian Association will meet today at 6 o’clock, in Room 12 of Boulevard Hall. The subject is “The Peace of a New Order.” There will be present and has consented to address the meeting. Lieutenant Wheeler is a consulting engineer and an expatriate hero of wide repute. He has had two years’ experience in the great war, and it is expected that his talk will therefore prove to be interesting.

The discussion groups will meet in Room 12, Boulevard Hall, at the following hours: 8.30 and 11. A. M., 12, 12:30, 3, 4 and 6 P. M. A special Engineering group will be conducted 2.30, in Room 109, Engineering Building. During the evening groups will be held in the various fraternity houses.

SESSION OF DEBATE COUNCIL.

Will Meet to Decide Upon Subject of Intercollegiate Debate.

In order to discuss the subject that has been selected by Columbia for the coming debates of the Triangular Intercollegiate Debating League, there will be a meeting of the University Debate Council today. If the subject is favorably acted upon, it will be sent to Captain Elderkin last Friday. The discussion of the debates have not yet been definitely decided upon.

The question of the proposed extension of the Philadelphia Intercollegiate Debating League will be a meeting of the University Debate Council today. If the subject is favorably acted upon, it will be sent to Captain Elderkin last Friday. The discussion of the debates have not yet been definitely decided upon.
