Attractive Program for First PUN REORGANIZATION

o'clock. The activities of the society, temporarily discontinued during the military regime, will be renewed at that hour and the prospects and aims of the society

All the campus publications are re- presented in the society, whose members are all known for their earnestness. General membership includes all benefactors and candidates for election. The University publications and students are represented by corresponding membership. Associate membership is composed of board members of campus publications and accredited representatives of other institutions. All new members are entitled to wear the society's insignia. In addition, the society shall apply only to "examinations in all branches of knowledge, given in Legy Hall or by any other committee of the society, whether in or out of class-rooms, or wherever examinations may be held." The society's "Library," as it is Improving under the direction of Dean V. D. H. Harrell, will be held in the Houston Hall, immediately after the election. An exceptionally fine scene for the library has been prepared in each building and every effort has been made to create the same atmosphere of the "class." The students are urged to get their tickets before Friday, in order that the election may be held properly for those who are coming.

EXECUTIVE BODY APPOINTED.

The Executive Committee has been appointed, as follows: Marcellus C. M. Purcell, president; E. C. Scudder, vice-president; W. C. Helmley, secretary; and D. Taylor, treasurer. The committee is composed of William M. Beard, Paul H. Hoehn, and Samuel M. Welgand, who will meet with the president regularly to round up promising tracts and to tutor the faculty. The committee is composed of all students who have been appointed to tutor the faculty. The committee is composed of all students who have been appointed to tutor the faculty. GETTING A RUNNING START.

Each of the offices of this year's Freshman Society depends upon the sort of meeting held in Houston Hall tonight. Re-organization of the right sort may be easily effected if a large number of interested and interested students will be present at the gathering and on active and active part in discussions.

After the suspicous start which the society made last year, under more adverse conditions, it would be a desirable thing for those interested in University affairs to meet tonight.

The work of the organization should not be continued only, but enlarged in every direction.

A WORD OF WISDOM.

Out of the profound experience of any two or three years of college study, it is not difficult to draw a word of wisdom for the Freshmen. You, as first-year men, have been urged to partake to the full of campus activities, and class spirit in general, and you have responded. You have elected your officers, won your swap with the Sophomores, and met everything the business of the activities. The class spirit, however, is not so easily won, and a word of warning is timely.

Do not lose sight of the business of the activities. The class spirit, however, is not so easy won, and a word of warning is timely.

Take the time to get acquainted with your classmates, with those who are on a higher level. It will be well for you to make a list of the names in the class-rooms, and the names of the members of the class club.

There are many men who have done this, and the class is well pleased with the results.

Members of 1922 Class, you are now on an aristocracy of the most enlight ced code. You are as good as we we, we will admit it—if you prove it.

To prove it you must get into the stock.
You must come.

Where are you falling short? You are falling short in allowing the brain to be engorged with useless thoughts, and in hiding whatever valuable stuff there may be in your.

To specie: you spread yourselves in obvious groups of idle and vulgar idleness in the case of your beloved buildings. You play at games in the class-rooms, and you still will be nice to have a little fun at teachers' expense. And if you play at games in the class-rooms, and anywhere in your penal code, you chatter in the Library.

Now reality! This is a life day to have to bring such remarks against you.

And it is no easy escape to them.

These among you who are not simmered, and cast your stones at your on unarmed classmates. But do not teach them the code.

You who have discovered it already explain to them the formularies of college bred dignity. That there may be no excuse for further utterances of this sort.

We suggest to all, whether in any crime in your penal code, you chatter in the Library.

Let us hope that it will not be too late to bring such remarks against you.

GRAPPLERS TO HOLD TRYOUTS.

Coach Higgin to Choose Heavyweights to Go to Annapolis.

Coach Higgin, of the wrestling squad, has decided to hold tryouts on Friday for the 175-pound and heavyweight divisions on the team, which will go to Annapolis February 15. In the 175-pound class, L. Kihl, 20 Wh., is doing very fast and will probably make the position. R. Wentzer, a C. C. R., is making good in the heavyweight class and quite likely will go with the team. The remainder of the men in the different weights have shown meritorious ability in their classes, Coach Higgin will hold a tryout Friday to give them another chance to make the Annapolis trip. Measurements were taken yesterday of the grapplers for wrestling suits. These suits are used during the collegiate season and are given to the men at the end of the season.

MAKE UNIVERSITY DAY PLANS.

Admission Tickets May Be Obtained at Houston Hall Now.

Preparations for the annual University Day exercises are nearly complete. Hon. William C. Sproul, Governer of Pennsylvania, will make the creation of the day. It has not yet been announced who will deliver the honorary degree.

Tickets for the use of student friends can be obtained at the Houston Club window on presentation of matriculation card. Giving to the limited number of these tickets available, no more than two can be allotted to any one student. As all University students will enter the Academy in a body, they will not need tickets.

Knights of Insurance School.

Classes for essays in the Insurance School, which are being given at the Philadelphia School, have been running smoothly for the past few days. The general plan of the classes is to enable all men at lectures, and to intensify the training in essay classes by division into groups of twenty men each. At present lecture work is centering the kinds and uses of life insurance, while essay sections are taking up the mathematical side of the question.

Rifle Club to Hold Meet.

Members of the Rifle Club will hold their first competition match Saturday, when they will compete with Germantown Academy. The arrangements call for a five-man team, and Marguerite Classical plans to select the five men who score the highest number of points this week. It is not yet definitely known whether the match will be held at the Academy, where the Rifle Club has its range, or at Germantown Academy.

Literary Societies Practice.

Practice for the coming series of basketball games to be played between the two societies, the Eratotheneian and Philomaclean Literary societies, has been announced. The former group will practice Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, and the latter will meet to day at 1 o'clock. Both practices will be held in the gymnasium, and candidates are asked to report at the time assigned for their group.

Ten Eyck to Coach Syracuse.

As soon as a contract can be signed, Ten Eyck, famous crew coach, will again be the instructor of the Varsity crewmen at Syracuse University. It has been made known that he originally resigned this position because of pecuniary difficulties, and that he is returning because he has been offered a higher salary.

Outside Practice for Yale.

File Yale University crews hold their first outdoor practice yesterday in New Haven Basin. This is the first time in many years that the eastern have been cut so early. The weather of the day was very successful, and a Varsity crew is to be chosen in the near future.

Diamond Schedule Ready Soon.

Next Monday or Tuesday, according to Engineers Manager E. H. Herrod, the schedule for the slate, already completely arranged, will be ratified by the Athletic Association. Its details cannot be announced until it has received the official sanction of the committee.
