On the Gridiron Program

By R. C. F. Glass

At a meeting of the Athletic Council, held last Thursday in the gymnasium, a fall schedule was presented and ratified. It was agreed that there will be one regular game each week, the details of each game to be arranged with the opponents. The schedule is as follows:

Oct. 11—Delaware College
Oct. 18—Swarthmore College
Oct. 25—La Salle College
Nov. 1—Pennsylvania State College
Nov. 8—Williams College
Nov. 15—University of Pittsburgh

Three new teams will oppose the "Varsity" this year. Penn State will be coached by Frank Forbes, and the players will report on Franklin Field at 2:30, the first test of this season when they face the "Varsity." Penn State will also be coached by Frank Forbes, and the players will report on Franklin Field at 2:30, the first test of this season when they face the "Varsity." The game will be followed by a meet with the University of Pittsburgh, who will be coached by William H. Arnold. The players will report on Franklin Field at 2:30, and the game will be followed by a meet with the University of Pittsburgh, who will be coached by William H. Arnold.

The rules for the game are as follows:

1. The game will be played for two 45-minute periods.
2. In the event of a tie, overtime periods of 15 minutes will be played until one team wins.
3. The team with the most goals will win.
4. If the game is tied after overtime, the teams will play another overtime period of 15 minutes.

HONORING OUR DEAD HEROES.

Nothing which we could do for our men who have made the supreme sacri-ifice during the war would be half enough. Inwardly, however, we honor them beyond all power of expression. Yet so many of our men have been lost in action or from disease, and those who have returned are in need of the help and comfort of their friends.

The university club of Pennsylvania University is sponsoring a memorial tablet for the war dead. This tablet will be a permanent reminder of the sacrifices made by our men and will serve as a source of inspiration to those who follow.
