TWO TYPES OF CRITICISM.

Criticism is of two kinds, constructive and destructive, as Matthew ARnold etimously points out in his essay on this subject. This may be applied not only to literature, art and music, but also to most everything which concerns us. As on our campus, we can now see a Bolshevik, and we are entitled to ask to the Bolshevism of the day, and this plus the "Bolshevik" newspaper is, for the sake of getting the "Bolshevik" name.

President Wilson is evidently receiving a lot of news by radio and has no reason to pull the wires. Having successfully disposed of two-thirds of the "Big Three," all that is now necessary in order to give us a perfect average is for Harvard to take our basketball.

YOUNG MEN—

For men of mettle and stamina—for men with the college spirit—for young men who play hard and fair in a scrimmage, who are virile in the gym., and game in the class room—who win like gentlemen and lose like true sportsmen.

Sportive, but not sporty; jaunty, but not rakish—free, easy, chummy. Art, grace, balance, comfort, distinctiveness.

Columbia, Annapolis, Pennsylvania, Union and West Club and Boston. With the return of Czech Ten Ekk to Syracuse this year, it is expected that he will also enter a Varsity from that institution, made up of his star freshman eight of last season. "Varsity, Boston "Varsity" and Penn State crew will compete in all of these meets.

The recent suggestion that Pennsylvanians send their "Varsity abroad to compete in the English Henley Regatta next July in meeting with the approval of all concerned. The Varsity crew seemed very enthusiastic when the proposition was recently put up to them. It is understood, of course, that the matter will not be considered should the University fail to win the championship again this year.

It has been estimated that the cost of such an undertaking would be in the neighborhood of $6,000. However, the authorities are of the opinion that there will be sufficient difficulty in raising this amount should Pennsylvania Indians decide in favor of competing.

MISSIONARIES WILL CONVERGE.

Annual Conference to Start at Penn State Next Friday.

Pennsylvania State College will be the scene of the Missionary Conference for the Colleges of the Middle Atlantic States, held annually to the National United Missionary Movement. The convention will start Friday and end Sunday evening. The purpose of the gathering is to discuss missionary problems and to promote religious work in the universities represented.

The conference will consist of large conference meetings, at which prominent missionary leaders will speak, and smaller meetings to discuss the missionary work in foreign countries. Among the speakers scheduled for the occasion are Dr. Samuel Zwemer, of New York; Rev. Dr. Elbert D. Wilson, Revisr of the Student Volunteer Movement, and head of the Religious Work Department of the War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A.

The University will be represented by eight delegates, although more may go. Arrangements will be made so that the men will return Monday night to attend classes on Monday. All of the delegates will witness the annual wrestling meet between Pennsylvanians and Penn State. Arrangements have also been made so that the wrestling meet will be able to attend the conference. Any further information concerning the conference can be obtained from John H. Hart, Jr., at the Christian Association office in Houston Hall.

Many College Men in Service.

Estimates of college representation in the war are beginning to appear. Dr. Charles Thomas, president of the Pennsylvania State College, gave a report at the annual dinner recently, figuring approximately. Student men: 556. Army service: 150.000 men in the regular army, or about 5,000, were paid to students.
