CAGE TEAM PREPARES FOR CORNELL CONTEST

In the second of the series of tryout meetings conducted by the Dance Club, the dancing club will be reviewed toIGHT on Tuesday at 7:30 in the tough club. The officers have set for this week a new theme of "Dancing in the Country," which has been the successful theme of the first two evenings. These meetings will be held at the usual time and place. "The Country Life," "When the Country Goes Dry," and "The Country Dance" are some of the pieces that will be discussed and tried out by the members. The second meeting will be held on Monday, at 8:00 in the tough club, and the third meeting will be held on Thursday, at 8:00 in the tough club. The officers are planning to have a new theme for each of these meetings.

Red and Blue to Appear Soon

Caricature of Student Types Feature of March Number.

According to an announcement by H. M. Just, Jr., 79 W., editor of the next issue, the March number of the Red and Blue will appear on the campus the first week of next month. After a few minor changes and corrections, this issue promises to be one of the best of the year.

Significant among the material is a piece of work by J. M. West, 79 C., presenting the caricatures of all students appearing on the campus. The makeup of the magazine, on the whole, is similar to that of other issues, including photographs of prominent men of the campus and writings of special interest.
