SEVEN HONORARY DEGREES AWARDED

Proven Smith Pays Tribute to Governor Sproul [Photograph of an event.]

ORATOR LAUDS WASHINGTON.

Featured by the presence of Governor William C. Sproul, who delivered the principal address, the exercises were held Saturday in the Academy of Music. The Governor took the occasion to confer on Governor Sproul the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. His other honorary degrees were awarded, the candidates being presented by Provost Smith by Vice-Provost Penniman.

As an introduction Governor Sproul addressed the large assembly, which included many figures of the national prominence as well as the crowd of students outside, who had pointed out the fact that the first Governor of Pennsylvania, Thomas Mifflin, had been a Quaker, and now the people of Pennsylvania were going back to their state.

Governor Sproul paid a striking tribute to his address in Washington, where Pennsylvania was clearly marked, "why we should give particular attention to the importance of George Washington. In view of the things which are happening in the Old World, wherein events are changing overnight and bringing about an entirely new parition with the conditions in America and Europe, we can afford no experiment. When we consider the events which happened in the old dynasties European and in Rome, and the circumstances attending it, we see there was a great expression in the fibre of the man which we have arised and in the leadership of our cause!"

Other honorary degrees besides that given to Governor Sproul were awarded to Master of Arts John J. Knox, of New York; Doctor of Laws—Dr. William W. Filler, of Philadelphia; and Dr. John M. Peterson, of New York; Doctor of Music—Dr. James E. Leland, of Philadelphia; and Dr. A. R. Martin, of the Class of 1877, J. B. Griscom, of New York; Doctor of Laws—Dr. A. E. H. Kline, of Philadelphia; and Doctor of Science, as of the Class of 1878—Dr. W. W. Filler, of Philadelphia. Other honorary degrees besides those conferred will be conferred on the Class of 1878.

Pennsylvania first: "Breathes there a 'Pennsylvania' man with soul so dead who never by himself beth." at some time or other, "My school is the greatest in the land!" This doubtless. Many there are who have a leaning, at least, toward believing this to be the fact.

Suppose we consider briefly attributes which qualify the University of Pennsylvania for leadership. One of the oldest and numerically largest schools in America, the University has contributed much toward the advancement of the educational world in general—features such as the curriculum.

The departments of Medicine, Dentistry, Architecture, Finance and Commerce, to name only a few, have been without peers in this country, while the remaining twenty-four schools and departments enjoy little or no competition whatever in other institutions.

Scholastically, then, Pennsylvania admits no superior.

In athletics, the fine major and eleven minor sports participated in rank the University around the top in this line of endeavor. True, every team is not a championship one, but winning without reserves unparalleled opponents from practically all Eastern schools, large and small, victory is an infrequent campus visitor. Most progressive of all is the booming of the student body in including the giving and carrying out policies for athletic participation.

In this manner it would be possible to run the entire gamut of athletic activities. Need one foot the least resistance in comparing our Mask and Wig, Musical Clubs, publications, literary magazines, etc., with any other college, ad infinitum, with organizations of a like nature in other places? We do not think so. Not the best in every branch, but a composite that stands out as unsurpassable glory.

The Varsity made a final score of 29 to the Thieres' 24.

McNichol was a tower of strength, both on the defense, the offense and the four foul. He scored five of the first and then his tallies from scoring stage. Ortner, Stewart and Kendall all played constantly for the visitors. The lineup was as follows:

Field goals—Sweeney, 3; Bannard, 1; Davis, 4; Peck, 2; Mcintosh, 3; Ortner, 2; Stewart, 2; Molinni, 2; Kendall, 3; Peck—6; Peck—5 out of 5: Ortner, 6 out of 12. Substitutions—Bullman for Molinni. Referee—Riley. Princeton. Empele—Reed, Spring forward. Time—11 minutes disabled.

Sweeney's Seventh Victory.

Winning the seventy consecutive victory of the year, the Princeton five defeated the Williamson Trades School quintet in a contest preliminary to the Varsity's. At no time was the result in doubt, and the final score, which was 29 to 18, represents fairly accurately the relative strength of the contestants.

Grellas alone made more points than did the whole opposing team, and lived up to his reputation of being a worthy successor of Captains McNichol, last year's yearlings. The lineup, of which Kingley and Robert were the visiting stars, follows:

Field goals—Sprenger, 2; Macintosh, Gravels, 6; Boyle, Robertson, 2; Kingley, 2; Keller, Boyley. Field goals—Gravels, 7 out of 18; Macintosh, 1 out of 2; Boyle, 1 out of 1; Robertson, 2, 1 out of 1; Keller, 2 out of 3; Lusk, 1 out of 8; Peck, 1 out of 8. Referee—Carney. Substitutes—Macintosh for Hunsinger. Crawford for Gravels. Time—16 minutes disabled.

Smelling ChessVictory.

Much to the surprise of all present at the Intercollegiate chess tournament held Saturday in Houston Hall, Chas. Smolens of the University, won the individual championship, thus entitling him to compete with the winner of the tournament held in New York city for the championship of America. Smolens, of the University, won the tournament held in New York city for the championship of America. His score was five won and none lost, having defeated all his competitors.
