JUNIOR CLASS MEETING.

All three slurs are aimed to attend the Junior Class sport- ing event to be held at Hous- ton Hall auditorium at this time the Lanternship Commit-tee will be in charge of the event, and the date will be set and other plans laid for this purpose of preventing any undue influence being brought new Freshmen in their choice of fraternity.

The following list of the fraternity, which governs the self lifter is a look of the said W. I. families or its members shall have the following Monday, at 4 p.m., 2.30 p.m. on Tuesday, 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, 12:30 p.m. on Thursday and 10:10 a.m. on Friday."
TAKING THE FRATERNITY QUESTION TOO SERIOUSLY.

There are a few members of the Freshman class who are dissatisfied at this time, and college life seems to hold nothing which promises to bring pleasure or contentment. The man who believes that failure to receive the desired invitation from a fraternity is indicative of unfitness or unpopularity is a greenhorn. Many things comprise the selection of a few men by the fraternity. The men who are selected are not in any sense the pick of the class, and the chosen few are all that makes it up.

Adaptability is an important factor in guiding the fraternity, and should be at just as significant a point as the physical examination. It is far better to belong to no fraternity than to one which is made up of men whose ideas and ideals are totally foreign to his own.

For this reason, many of the most loyal and active Pennsylvanians have not been fraternity men, but this has in no way kept them from assuming a place of leadership on the campus.

The opportunities of serving Pennsylvania are given equally to all members of the Class of 1822 looks towards whether they wear the pledge button or not. Fraternities must be subservient to Pennsylvania if they are to serve the purpose which justifies their existence.

The non-fraternity man has and always will be as much interested in undergraduate activities as the members of the Greek letters in society. Any man who believes that membership in a fraternity gives him right to assume a superior air towards society, or that he can cut himself off from his own fellowmen is either a fraternity or a University man.

This week’s "best exchange editorial" was published several years ago in The Michigan Daily. That paper never did get up to its last Friday, and it is a serious university annual concern to do so now. We will try "I'll Meet You at Six."" "I'll see you at six." "Where would your friends go through the procedure or action? If "this is the rule, then he must remain firm, because, of course, he will have to be later, I’ll tell him, and get there at six o’clock."

"It’s just as easy to have the promotions. That serves you right, and be unsuccessful you don’t appear even till twenty-five.

Of course, it doesn’t matter if you have missed twenty minutes by being a member of this fraternity, for this is the University—the teaching ground for future life, to be sure—and in the University, the University is the key to your future life.

Registration for Relay Carnival Unprecedented

Registration for Relay Carnival Unprecedented

The hundred and seventy-five teams have already entered the 12-mile decathlon relay carnival scheduled for April 26th and 29th. This is a larger list than has ever been received at such an early date and includes 130 colleges, 32 preparatory schools, and 26 grammar schools. The returns of the parochial school invitations have not been counted.

To George Orton, relay manager, has come a statement in which he says: "I believe so far over three hundred teams will be in attendance. The entry list itself should be convincing proof that college track and field athletics are alive for a mighty come-back this season. In fact, from the days that I already know, the general public can go to Franklin Field on April 26th and 29th and see the best in the world.

Columbia's showing at the Junior Athletic Association championships delight their followers. They won the championship relay. Those Who have signed their names to the entry blanks, in the distance medley relays. Last year we had an especially good list of men who made a good showing in the freshman championship. These are the events in which they will contest. Of the total number of events, only four are second year men, and in order to give the Sophomores a bat in the championship, at least twenty more entries are needed from this class. Practice has picked up considerably and will continue until Friday afternoon.

Some events, especially the distance relays, the pole-vault, shot-put and high jump, have very few entries, and offer an excellent opportunity to men who have not yet entered. A winner of one of the first three places in an event will be rewarded with a silver medal. Those who will compete on the larger relay team will be announced in a few days, and will not be barred from entering two other events. The teams will be selected by Coach Robertson upon his return. It is not yet certain whether numerals will be awarded to the members of the winning relay team.

N. E. Club to Reorganize

All graduates of the Northeast High School attending the University are urged to be present at a reorganization meeting of the Northeast Club today at 12 o'clock, in Room 1, Houston Hall. Officers will be elected and important business will be discussed.

FENDERS READY FOR CONTEST

Daily Practice Has Greatly Improved
Form of Fencers

In the second contest of the season, the fencing team will meet Columbia at New York on Friday. Regular practices have been held since the recent defeat at Yale, and it is expected that the fencers will make a good showing against the team which defeated them last year.

Holmes, henceforth known as champion, is again with Columbia, assuming a closer connection with the University.

Columbia's fencers will hold return bouts here on March 14 and Yale will meet Pennsylvania here later in the month. On April 4 and 5 the interscholastic Fencing Association will hold a title meet in New York at the Astor Hotel. Yale, Harvard, Columbia and Pennsylvania are included in the announcement, and Columbia has requested that she be allowed to enter a team.

Yale in Expanded Athletics

According to statements just given out, Yale undergraduates are for expansion, instead of contraction or re- striction, in the development of recreational sport for more assistant money, instead of fewer, and for larger instead of smaller scholarships. The triangular agreement, according to the stipulations of the Undergraduate Athletics Assiociation, was made in understanding with Harvard and Princeton as to eligibility and scheduled participation. Yale will sponsor colleges than ever before in her athletic contests, in the years of the strongest athletic season.

The first football game of the season will be played on November 25 at Harvard.
