TRACKMEN READY FOR INTERCLASS GAMES

Making the first trip of the season, Manhattan Club will journey to Camp Dix tomorrow morning to entertain the men of that cantonment. No members are requested to meet at the start of the athletic meet, Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at 9 o'clock. Therefore, the second annual track meet will be followed in rapid succession by the 40-yard dash, 80-yard dash, 100 yard, 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 440-yard hurdles, the 1-mile run, the mile run, and the eight-man relay race.

The entries for the pole vault are for the second time in the last three years made up only by second-year men, and it is expected that there will be no change in this number this year. The Pennsylvanian will meet in the last week of April, and the entries have not been received. However, the track meet is expected to leave the same at 100 So. 16th St. or at the new stadium, which will be constructed on the grounds of the 1919 Mill Race.

The entries for the pole vault are: Matthews, Gurney, Caldwell, Cunningham, and Prince. The entries for the high jump are: Matthews, Gurney, Caldwell, Cunningham, and Prince. The entries for the long jump are: Matthews, Gurney, Caldwell, Cunningham, and Prince. The entries for the 880-yard run are: Matthews, Gurney, Caldwell, Cunningham, and Prince. If this question were put to every student at Pennsylvania, many of us would answer that we are here to get an education; others, to have a good time, or possibly to put off going to work. Worse of all, there would be some who could not answer because they have no purpose in life. Few are the men who get anything out of the University, they are the driftest. It is obvious that the man who never aims at anything, never gets anything.

SLAVIC SOCIETY TO HOLD
ANNUAL CONVENTION HERE

Organizations to Promote Study of Near Eastern Classics Will Visit Universities.

Slavonic scholars from all parts of the United States will hold their annual Convention in Houston Hall April 22 and 23, according to an announcement made yesterday by Franklin K. Haggerty, President of the Associated Classes in Russian at the University.

The convention will be conducted under the auspices of the Society for the Advancement of Slavonic Study, which was organized two years ago for the purpose of advancing interest in the study and teaching of Slavonic languages, history, art and culture.

The focus of the convention will be on education including the preparation of adequate text-books, creation and award of scholarships to deserving students, and the distribution of books dealing with the literature and history of the various Slavonic nations. The proceedings of the Society are published annually.

Dr. L. Zelenska Laskowska, of Sweden, is the delegate from the Russian Empire, while Prof. E. H. A. J. Seligman, of Canada, is the delegate from the Canadian Slavonic Federation. The membership list of the Society includes such names as President Woodrow Wilson, ex-President Taft, the late Colonel Elihu Root and other notables.

FRANKLIN SOCIETY POSTERS TO ANNOUNCE CAMPAIGN MUSIC EVENT

BEGIN CONCERT CAMPAIGN.
Franklin Society Posters to Announce Campus Musical Event.

With the appearance tomorrow of several posters featuring the number three, the Franklin Society, under the direction of the Central Committee, will inaugurate a vigorous campus campaign to advertise the concert to be given by the Philadelphia Orchestra in Wrightman Hall on March 5. The campaign will continue for thirteen days and will be carried out by the representatives of the Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Chi, Kappa Delta Phi, and other high-sounding University organizations. The success of the representatives of the organizations will probably be announced on Monday.

The concert will be the first of the finest quality and a reduced attendance is expected. Tickets will be placed on sale by the committee in charge at College Hall on tomorrow morning. No tickets will be allowed to purchase more than six.

The resolutions for 1919 students, all made and plans are now under way for the erection of a stage which will seat the large orchestra of 113 pieces.

A DECISION ON HOLDING INTERCOLLEGIATE GAMES

Acting Graduate Manager of Athletics E. E. Bushnell, announces that a meeting of track directors from various colleges will be held at the Philadelphia YMCA, Broad and Chestnut Streets, on Tuesday, March 1.

At this meeting it will be decided whether or not the intercollegiate championship meet will be held, and if there is a favorable decision, the place of the meeting will be chosen at once. Many other important matters will be brought before the body, such as the elimination of certain events opposed by some of the colleges.
