The Sophomore Lunch in the University Hall on the 13th will be held near the end of May. The Sophomore-Freshman debate will be held on March 19, and the debate will be held the wek before the triangular meet beginning the only cover transportation and admission. As an Inducement to the men to make his report daily at 5 o'clock to the Philadelphia Orchestra is one of the most famous orchestras in the world. The order of the steps for the show. The over one hundred pieces will occupy the whole campaign can be tabulated. The beginning of the second period is to take place on May 3. In order to complete the schedule of five races for each opponent. An advantageous position to the men to continue practice daily, the association plans to do all the practice. At the beginning of the second period is to take place on May 3. In order to complete the schedule of five races for each opponent. An advantageous position to the men to continue practice daily, the association plans to do all the practice. The conditions at the host house will be arranged with the work so as to have them completed. At present two men are assigned to each locker, which results in much confusion. An other improvement suggested was a number of better chairs to enable the homeowners to serve tea at the regular lunch-hour.

The beginning of the second period is to take place on May 3. In order to complete the schedule of five races for each opponent. An advantageous position to the men to continue practice daily, the association plans to do all the practice. The conditions at the host house will be arranged with the work so as to have them completed. At present two men are assigned to each locker, which results in much confusion. An other improvement suggested was a number of better chairs to enable the homeowners to serve tea at the regular lunch-hour.

The beginning of the second period is to take place on May 3. In order to complete the schedule of five races for each opponent. An advantageous position to the men to continue practice daily, the association plans to do all the practice. The conditions at the host house will be arranged with the work so as to have them completed. At present two men are assigned to each locker, which results in much confusion. An other improvement suggested was a number of better chairs to enable the homeowners to serve tea at the regular lunch-hour.

The beginning of the second period is to take place on May 3. In order to complete the schedule of five races for each opponent. An advantageous position to the men to continue practice daily, the association plans to do all the practice. The conditions at the host house will be arranged with the work so as to have them completed. At present two men are assigned to each locker, which results in much confusion. An other improvement suggested was a number of better chairs to enable the homeowners to serve tea at the regular lunch-hour.
NOTICES

Mask and Wig Give Cheeks—No rehearsal to-night.

Carrie Francher.—Meeting to-night at 7 30, by the 1922s.

Mask and Wig—Rehearsal at 8:15 at the Kibler. Where.

Kentucky Club—Meeting to-morrow at Hunting Hall, 7:15 to 7:45.

Pennsylvania Board—Meeting to-morrow on Library steps, Tuesday at 1 o'clock.

Gym. Team.—S. S. Harris and A. C.
Giroure report at gymnasium at 5:45 tomorrow.

Ritze Club.—All members present at Room 609, College Hall, Tuesday.

Minor Sports.—Meeting of all manaager and assistant managers today at 3:15. At, 3:15.

Punch Bowl.—Additional editorial
and art copy may be turned in today at 3:15. At, 3:15.

Red and Blue.—All photographic copy due on Monday, March 19, and editorial copy Wednesday, March 12.

Junior Class Pictures.—Leave orders
for Pennsylvania's first official week. 1.50
en. Proof will be shown, price, $1.25.

Football Picture.—Varsity picture
will be taken at 3 o'clock Friday, 1 1/2 weeks from now. Men will bring their own uniforms.

Track Management Committee.—Consumption bulletin board to be returned to Colleges, 13 a.m. Tuesday.

Punch Bowl.—Additional editorial
and art copy may be turned in today at 3:15. At, 3:15.

Red and Blue.—All photographic
print copy due on Monday, March 19, and editorial copy Wednesday, March 12.

Junior Class Pictures.—Leave orders
for Pennsylvania's first official week. 1.50
en. Proof will be shown, price, $1.25.

Football Picture.—Varsity picture
will be taken at 3 o'clock Friday, 1 1/2 weeks from now. Men will bring their own uniforms.

Track Management Committee.—Consumption bulletin board to be returned to Colleges, 13 a.m. Tuesday.

Punch Bowl.—Additional editorial
and art copy may be turned in today at 3:15. At, 3:15.

Red and Blue.—All photographic
print copy due on Monday, March 19, and editorial copy Wednesday, March 12.

Junior Class Pictures.—Leave orders
for Pennsylvania's first official week. 1.50
en. Proof will be shown, price, $1.25.
COPY DUE FOR FRISQUE NUMBER.

Work on Mask and Wig Issue to Begin Next Week.

Although a large quantity of art and editorial copy for the Frisque Number of Print has already been submitted, much more is needed. Any additional copies due today must be in by Monday at 10:45 or 1. The Print Number, which will appear in the Campus, March 20, will be suggestive of spring, and promising to be an entertaining issue.

Plans for the Mask and Wig Number, which the board aims to make the last issue ever put out by any University publication, will be outlined by Editor-in-Chief W. W. at a meeting of all editorial and art committees to be held in the studio next Wednesday evening at 7:30. Assignments will be made at this time. An Editor-in-Law and Managing Editor have been engaged to extend the work of each man in their respective departments, and other helpful suggestions.

WRESTLERS TO MEET LEHIGH.

Coach Riggs Plans to Hold Elimination Contest Next Week.

Starting early next week, Coach Riggs will hold an elimination wrestling tournament, in preparation for the coming Intercollegiates at Boston College. This tournament is open to every member of the squad, and a large list of entries is expected.

The team is eagerly awaiting instructions for Saturday's meet, which will be held at Lehigh, at North Bethlehem. A tryout in the 125-pound class took place yesterday, in which Captain Rhoads secured a quick fall over Bader. Despite the close positions of the team are still undecided, and the candidates for the daily tryouts will determine their chances of making the team. The final lineup will be announced Saturday morning.

SPANISH SOCIETY ORGANIZED.

Central Latin-American to Hold Initial Meeting To-night.

Of particular interest to students of Spanish will be the news of the founding of a Centro Latino-Americano. This society was organized last week, with H. E. Mora, '21 D. as president, and Prof. Bronner Navarro, of the Romance Language Department, as faculty advisor. In aid to give English-speaking students of the Spanish language an opportunity to hear it spoken by men whose native tongue is Spanish.

The first regular meeting of the Centro will be held tonight at 8.30, in Houston Hall. All students interested in Spanish are cordially invited to attend this meeting and join the society.

JUNIORS ANNOUNCE LUNCHEON.

Committee Planning to Have Provost Speak Address Class.

Definite announcement has been made that the Junior luncheon is to be held tomorrow, March 18, at the Normandie. Tickets, ready for distribution tomorrow, will be obtainable from the Luncheon Committee, of which Paul Kirchen, '20 M. E., is chairman. Posters will be placed on the campus to advertise the affair.

President Gardner will address the class, and it is also planned to have the Provost attend. An attractive program has been arranged and a large attendance is anticipated.

Menorah Rally Tonight.

As a revival of its activities on the campus, the Menorah Society will hold its first meeting of the year in the Menorah Club quarters tonight, beginning at 8.30. There will be speeches by Abraham Olaser, a prominent New York attorney, and Dr. Max L. Margolis, of Temple Emanu-El, who will be chairman of the program for the remainder of the year, and chair of the evening.

Naturalists' Club to Meet.

At 8 o'clock this evening, in Biology Hall, the Naturalists' Club of the University will hold its first meeting of the year. An attractive program has been arranged and all members of the club are invited to attend. The feature of the evening will be a talk on "Trinidad," by Miss Lora B. Scott, secretary of the Philadelphia Travels Club.

His Excellency, the British Consul, will give a reception for Englishmen and American-born British subjects, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Brown, 1710 Walnut Street, Tuesday evening, beginning at 8.30. It is understood that a select limited company will be admitted, and all in attendance will wear black and white striped silk.

Great variety of dress will be worn—black silk brocades, white silk and black and white striped silk.

Quite the largest stock in the city and at all moderate prices.

PYLE, INNES & BARBIERI
Leading College Tailors
1115 WALNUT STREET

TOMLINSON'S FOR HEALTH FOOD
THE BEST ON THE CAMPUS
3704 SPRUCE STREET WEST PHILADELPHIA.
DEBATE RESULTS ANNOUNCED.

Eight Men Survive First Test,—Hold Finals Next Wednesday.

Of the eighteen men who tried out for the "Varsity" debating team last night, the following were chosen: N. G. Barstow, H. J. Hibertson, W. C. B. B. J. Shaw, R. H. Jack, P. B. Ritter, J. M. B., J. E. B., and E. C. P. The team may be divided into two sections: the first being represented by the members of the "Greek" speeches. The question of the day was: "The government of a country does not withdraw its control of the railroads when it has once set such control in operation, except upon the question of payment of dividends." The following men were heard as judges: C. N. Callender, of the Wharton School; T. R. Goodington, of the Wharton School; and J. Swett, a local attorney.

The final competition will take place next Wednesday. At this time the five men from last year's debate team and the eight new choices (last night will meet to determine the six men to represent the University this year.

To set date for French play.

Procedoes of Performance Go to French Relief Committee.

For the purpose of deciding the production dates of "Miquette et Sa Mere," the Crews Preludes and Salon Preludes, which are producing the play jointly, will hold a meeting to-night at 7:30 o'clock at the Houston Hall. A committee will be appointed to purchase the tickets for sale and business affairs.

In accordance with past custom, the Bellevue-Stratford Ball-room has been selected as the place of performance. A dance will follow the play and all proceeds from expenses will be donated to the French Relief Committee of the Emergency Aid.

"Varsity" Tackle May Return.

According to a letter received from "Heinz" Miller, Louis Little will return to Pennsylvania in time for the 1919 gridiron season. His return will add considerably to the already promising prospects for a strong Red and Blue line next season. Little is at present a captain in an infantry company with the Army of Occupation.

Seniors to Hold Dinner.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Senior Class, plans were discussed for a dinner to be held some time this month. Proceeding the dinner, it is planned to have a general get-together meeting of the class, and a snappy program of entertainment will be provided for the occasion.

Tickets Must Be Paid For Today.

After more than the allotted time had been allowed for the payment of fines, cases of the various departments of the University have been in excess to expect all deficient students who have not paid their fees. Active expulsion begins today.

Junior Pictures on Sale.

Proofs of the Junior Class picture are being shown at the office of The Pennsylvania from 1:30 to 2 o'clock daily. This price is $1.25, payable in advance. Orders will be taken until Wednesday, March 12.

1919 Picture Next Week.

Nroofs are being sent out to members of the class and notifying them that the Senior Class picture will be taken next week. The exact date has not been set, but will be announced later.

The Fine Uniform Texture and Unusual Wearing Quality of the Lead, Make

MacDonald & Campbell

Specialists in Young Men's Clothing

Haberdashery and Hats

1334-1336 Chestnut St.

Philadelphia

DIXON, ELDORADO

The snazzy drawing pencil

more economical than the average lower priced pencil.

DIXON at all stations

Try a 60c Table de Hote Dinner

AT

The Victoria Lunch

3713 Spruce St.

"A DINNER THAT IS A DINNER"

Bell—Walnut 867, Second Floor Walnut 832

Kerrow—Main 6505 D

HOTEL PALUMBO

Italian Restaurant

Service Unsurpassed.

S. W. CATHERINE AND DARIEN STS.

Scott-Powell Perfectly Pasteurized Milk

45th and Parrish Streets

Phone: Bell Market 21-91; Dickinson 21-38 J

DAVID S. BROWN

Orchestras Exclusive

533 Market Street

Philadelphia

BUY WAR SAVINGS STAMPS