Pennsylvania team promed.

Twelve picked athletes will leave West Philadelphia Station this afternoon for the annual varsity meet at Tufts University. The team will be under the guidance of the Amateur Athletic Association of the University of Pennsylvania, Athletics Department, Brooklyn, Pennsylvania, whose team won the games last season, will again have the advantage in this year's competition.

The meet will be held on track, 1,000-yard, hurdles, and jumping events.

The schedule will be arranged so that the teams can have a full day's training in the gymnasium before the game.

The team will leave Tuesday afternoon and return Wednesday afternoon.

The team will consist of the following:

C. H. Davis, center, and McNeil and Peck, guard, and Blue team was excellent, while the Red and Blue teams were both led by the outstanding Dave Fryman, captain of last year's cross-country team. The team will leave Tuesday afternoon and return Wednesday afternoon.
