In a contest staged at the West- town Armory, the Red and Blue Freshman basketball team defeated the Blue team, 20-18, in the closest score of 49 to 35. With the whole cabinet working together in the best form of the season, the Red and Blue put the whole match count between the halve standing at 16-13. Mr. B. S. Greene was the best performer, tallying eight two-pointers out of a possible 16 two-pointers. Rosenthal, with six goals, also played a good game. Bicker and Shears, were the Westtown forwards. Wurcer the center, and Fisher and Hinderdseg rapid, and a suitable collection of musical numbers has been assembled by Charles Gllpin. A skit on "A History of the Former Columbia and Lutheran Society" will be held this coming Saturday and Sunday, with a special concert of chamber music on Sunday. The cast looks good," said Charles Gllpin. WHAT OF THE HOUSTON CLUB?

Periodically various University publications have bemoaned conditions at the Houston Club, but little has been accomplished in any way of improvement. Several years ago student managership was instigated, with the result that the city activity during the year by the officers of the club is extremely doubtful whether or not students know that the undergraduate officers are, and even more doubtful as to whether the officers are working, either collectively or individually, to improve the club.

The main trouble with the Houston Club, one might even say, it’s a failure to serve the purpose it was intended for. People, being a meeting place for all the students and a center of University activity, it is a commercial establishment, is, in its nature, a business. It is noted in a cold, matter-of-fact way. The students who reside in Philadelphia, are the only ones who make use of the rooms; the surrounding being entirely too unattractive to interest the man who lives in the dormitories or his fraternity house.

When the Houston Club was built it was intended that it should be similar to the noted unions at other universities—a place where students and professional men could come and enjoy the great democracy of the reading-room, the surroundings of which would be regarded as being entirely too unattractive to induce the man who lives in the dormitories or his fraternity house.

It is within the power of the student to spruce up the club. The officers should be aroused into an interest in the Houston Club as it is today by the fact that the students are not willing to give it the attention and attention it deserves.

Now that the war, R. A. T. C. and R. O. T. C. are no longer potent factors in undergraduate life, we are turning our interests into other channels. A strenuous effort is being made to improve the campus of the University, and the work being done in this line is heartily appreciated by the students. May we suggest, however, as one of the first steps in the “magnificent undertaking,” that the Houston Club be notified of the broken-down auto-track which has adorned the back yard of Logan Hall many months. Remove to some remote spot where it will not offend the eye of our more fastidious members to be desired.

With the ever increasing congestion of traffic at the Dormitory corner during rush hours, we suggest a traffic officer be made Thirty-seventh street and Woodland avenue safe for democracy. All of us have not been able to keep our $15.00 war risk insurance.

Love is like a photographic plate; it develops better in the dark. Probably the reason for its being blank, also.

COMMUNICATION.

Get out of The Pennsylvania.

The remarks of Mr. Margolis Thursday evening in Houston Hall deserve the careful consideration of every American citizen. It is not possible for us to elucidate this subject in a few words, but the immediate question is the importance of the subject. The same subject, as already noted, is of great importance to every hearer. In substance, he asserted that since all cultural subjects such as philosophy, literature, history and foreign tongues were taught (necessarily) in the past, they will continue to be taught in the future as well. The object of the Monarch, therefore, an intercollegiate Jewish organization, is not captured or owned, but intensely practiced.

The ultimate effect of the pursuit of such a complex of knowledge and isolated sects in all the diverse elements of our population would be to try to rend the United States, "outgrowth hunting," in the words of Mr. Roosevelt. Before the courts entered the war, such a program would have been likely to fail; but the great work has been done under the bridge of France. It is a matter of common knowledge that the charter of the German American Alliance was revoked by Congress because its cultural objects were extended to include propoganda of the most vicious motives and character. Mr. Margolis advocated that the Monarch be made a vehicle for the propagation of Judaism in its narrow and most intimate aspect, to the total submergence of all the academic elements of the citizen.

My unprofitable reflection on the conclusion of the address dwelt on the thought that the students who would be favored with his emphasis of Judaism" instead of "love" throughout his address, the better the Houston Club.

Among the speakers will be Dr. Light- tume, who will discuss "Fundamentals of Intelligence Testing." Dr. H. J. T. Haggard will speak on "Memory and Test," Dr. A. L. Ide on "An Intelligence Test as Distinguished from an Intelligence Test," and Dr. F. H. Boller on "Observation of Test Babbins and College Grades."

The meeting will be preceded at 6 o'clock by an informal supper, to be given in Houston Hall. It will be followed by a general business meeting of the society and the election and initiation of new members.

ZELD PRACTICE TIGHT.

Rehearsal of Annual Play—Proofs of Society Picture Ready.

Despite the non-arrival of books, the regular rehearsal of Zela's annual play, "Pattson," will take place tonight at 7.45 by the members of the society. All members of the cast are expected by this time, and all other members interested are invited to arrive early in order to assist in the construction of the boards.

Proofs of the recent picture are ready, and orders are being looked for by the committee. Those desiring pictures are advised to see the proof, to purchase the item, and give their orders to have early delivery.

PLAN NEW BULLETIN BOARDS.

Six Outdoor Notice Stations to Augment Present Facilities.

Realizing the need of bulletin boards on the campus, where athletic and other University notices may be posted, the Undergraduate Council recommended to the Athletic Council that such boards be erected. The Athletic Council has acted upon this recommendation and arrangements have been made for the construction of the boards.

Direction will be given immediately at the following locations: Corner of Logan Hall, rear of College Hall, Museum Laboratory, south end of Library, dormitory entrance and Dental School.

Zeta, Dinas at Normandie.

Following its usual custom, the Zeta, Dinas, No. 1, met Saturday night at the Hotel Normandie. A six-course dinner was served, during which an organist rendered several selections. Dean Quinn of the College, gave a talk on the history of Zeta, and short speeches were made by various members of the society.
