MAS AND WIG ANNOUNCES CUT.

Retain Twenty-seven as Final Choice for Dancing Chorus.

As a result of Monday's rehearsal of the Mask and Wig dancing chorus, twenty-seven men have been retained. Although actual competition had ended, it was found necessary to cut three of those previously retained. This was due to the fact that the Faculty Committee approved of the substitution of almost in its entirety, leaving a larger number than was actually needed.

The following men will report for the next rehearsal at the Mask and Wig club house, 310 Quince street, at 4:30 to-morrow afternoon: Anderson, Almeter, Bingham, Bolton, Brediner, De Haan, Donovan, Ellison, Ferguson, Freeman, Hellawell, Heflin, Kennedy, Kilbr, Killon, Kimm, Levitt, Nichols, Oakford, Ramsey, Robb, Spafford, Trousdale, Van Pelt, Van, Wehn, Wright.

OYM TEAM PRACTICES DAILY.

Fast Rounding Into Shape for Meet with Haverford.

Members of the gym team are fast rounding into shape for the Haverford meet, to be held on March 11, at Haverford. Captain Littig, '20, is putting the various members of the team through strenuous practice on the track, here and mad. Knight, '19 Med., is again back, and is showing better form than ever.

The members of the team who will probably get points in the meet are Captain Littig, tumbling; Knight, '19 M., horizontal bars, horse and mat. Knight, '20 Med., bars; Fordhani, '19 I.D., and Ordway, 21 Th., horizontal bars. Gilmore, '22 Wh., clubs; Harris, '22 C.E., tumbling; Mason, Van Cott was pleased last night after practice, and feels confident that the team will make an excellent showing at Haverford.

To Award Language Prize.

Eliminations for the Eugene Delano six-week's Modern Language prize will be held on Thursday and Friday of this week. The prize will be awarded to the student making the highest grade in the special examinations, one in French and one in German. The results of the two will be averaged to determine the final results. The French examination will be held on Thursday, and the German examination at the same time on Friday.

Princeton Swim Postponed.

Owing to a disagreement concerning the date, the Princeton-Pennsylvania swimming meet has been indefinitely postponed. Practice will continue, however, in preparation for the Intercollegiate Individual Championships, which commence on March 22, at the C. C. N. Y. pool. The Freshman-Sophomore varsity will take place soon, and will be one of the contests for the Dean's Trophy.

Zeke. Play Practice Tonight.

Following the plan of bi-weekly practice for the Zealophic Literary Society's annual play, the second meeting of this week will be held tonight in the rooms, fourth floor, College Hall, at 7:45. The play chosen, "Paradise," consists of five female and eight male parts. The female parts will be taken by co-eds of the University, and the remaining members of the cast will be made up of the society's members.

Fencing Team to Meet Columbia.

On Friday, at 4 o'clock, in the rowing room of Withington Hall, Columbia's fencing team will oppose Pennsylvania. In the last match, in New York, Columbia won by the score of 6 to 3. The Red and Blue are working hard in preparation for this match, and are determined to come through with a victory.
