PHILO. PREPARES FOR DANCE.

Society to Hold "St. Paddy's Day" Hilarity in Rooms Tonight.

Phi's annual "St. Paddy's Dance" will be held tonight in the Philoma-thon Hall. The rooms have been dec-rated in appropriate colors for the occasion, and all arrangements for the affair are completed. An attendance of every sixty is anticipated.

The third game of the basketball series with Zelo. will take place tomorrow at 10 o'clock, in Weightman Hall. Players are to be on the floor at 9:45. The two contests played so-far have both been won by the Philo.

Among other activities planned for the remainder of the term is the annual play of the society, which is to be given early in May.
