Team to Compete in Intercollegiates Will Be Picked Next Week.

Tryouts for positions on the University wrestling team which will compete in the coming Intercollegiates championship will be held next week in the main in Wheatman Hall. This year's State College will stage the title meet, which will be held March 25-29. Invitations to the University matmen, teams representing Columbia, Cornell, State, Lehigh and Princeton are expected.

Despite the fact that the University matmen lost to Princeton Wednesday night by the score of 8-4, Coach Higginson was well satisfied with their showing. He was especially gratified at the work of Heiber and Ketterer, who won their bouts, and the splendid showing of Davis and Armstrong, who took part in their first outside meet.

Quality tells the difference in the taste between Coca-Cola and counterfeit imitations. Coca-Cola quality, recorded in the public taste, is what holds it above imitations. The people like Coca-Cola. The people demand Coca-Cola. They demand and are given the genuine by all and only the genuine means refreshment.

The 1,000,000-kilowatt Stove
Considered by many critics as the greatest all-around college athlete, Harry Jordan, of Dartmouth, has entered the pentathlon championship. He is expected to take part in the opening day of the Relay Carnival, April 25. Last year Jordan represented Dartmouth in practically every branch of sport, being a star on both the football and baseball teams and competing in many track events. At present he holds the joint Invitational pole-vault championship with Emery, of Pittsburgh.

The pentathlon championship is now held by Emery, the first and Blue runner, and the struggle between these two stars promises to be one of the features of the Carnival. In addition to the all-around championship, the sprint and distance novelty relay championships will be held on Friday, the first of May. With such an excellent list of entries in all events, F. T. A.'s program will prove in every way the equal of the second day's competition.

It is expected that the University of Chicago will again send some exceptionally strong relay teams to this year's Carnival. The star runner of the Chicago institution is McCaugh, a hard-hitting, practically every-trackman of fame from the Western colleges. He will no doubt be used as anchor man in either of the two or four-mile relay teams.

Coach Blagg also has two exceptionally fast quarter-milers in Kennedy and Kavanagh, who will make their teams a strong contender for the mile relay championship. During the last twenty-five years Chicago University has furnished more fast relay teams than has any other Western college.

Silk Screen Printing

Silk screen printing is a versatile technique used in various industries such as fashion, art, and graphic design. It involves straining a design onto fabric or another material through a stencil. This method allows for detailed and intricate patterns to be achieved, making it a popular choice for custom clothing and artwork.
