ONE-DAY CANVASS FOR $3,000 NOW ON

Emergency Aid Seeks Support of Student Body in Campaign to Benefit 80 Victims of "Flu"

WILL TAG ALL CONTRIBUTORS.

For the benefit of the influenza victims, the Student Emergency Aid is now swinging its twenty-fourth canvas today. There will be a number of canvassers walking about the campus in order that every student may have an opportunity to contribute.

Up to now the Emergency Aid has made canvases yesterday and another day more than any other organization of its kind. Many students of Chinese and other nationalities left the great war. It is the responsibility of those who have been left to help their friends, and something can be done for them, the three thousand dollars which it hopes to receive from Pennsylvania newspapers.

Each man to contribute to this fund must be a graduate student, and he must have done his part in this campaign. He must do what he can to help his countrymen and his neighbors.

A specimen of the program is presented by Stanley Hirsch, 19 Wbh, of last year's Mask and Wig show. As the feature of the evening, a new social gathering will be presented. This picture is one of the best recent releases, and is sure to be a success. Information is provided by the University Jazz orchestra, and refreshments will be served cafe-style.

Tickets for the smoker may be bought from members of the Ticket Committee. The price for the even is 25 cents each. Members of the smoker may be expected to follow the smoker until 10:15 this morning in Houston Hall.

Those will be uniformed on the com-

We shall not attempt any descrip-

- Our Spring Suits and Spring Overcoats are pouring in every day!

- The big events we have been passing through have stimulated designers and weavers to produce patterns and color schemes of unusual as well as of timely beauty. The great Victory the World has won for decency and for civilization is commemorated in a new stripe to which we have given Victory's name. You will like the pattern—and you will also like the models and the lines of the new Spring Suits it has been cut into. Come in and see it.
