The orchestra to repeat this year, on April 10, in Welghtman. Stokowski will again conduct in a number of overtures, from which the "Squire of Low Degree," a poem by Helen Bailey, '19 Ed., is Fault of Unique Interest. The Squire is interested in being used as the basis for the portions. The Stokowski was very much interested in the story of the Student life. "The New Responsibility," tells the story of the study and athletic competition in football last fall. The entire theme of the book is well up to the standard of Red and Blue "Co-Ed Education." ANZAC LUGERS.

Fraternity Fed Lures, participant in two hundred battles, who has fought from the Ypres to the Menin, who, see him with the Amie under the auspices of the American Association in Houston Hall tonight and tomorrow. This great war veteran has received much favorable comment in New York, where his interesting experiences and most unusual pictures delighting a large audience. It is perhaps no novelty in the world today who has had so many and varied experiences as Sergeant Lagers. In all the time that he was engaged in battle he was not wounded.

It was only by special arrangement that Sergeant Lagers consented to come. He feels he gives an excellent opportunity of gaining some first hand information about the war in Egypt and Gallipoli, as well as more immediate and recent events. Large audiences will show our appreciation both to Sergeant Lagers personally, and also for the splendid type of soldier he represents. All who attend are insured a pleasant as well as beneficial evening.

Our Spring Suits and Spring Overcoats are pouring in every day!

The big events we have been passing through have stimulated designers and weavers to produce patterns and color schemes of unusual as well as of timely beauty. The great Victory the World has won for decency and for civilization is commemorated in a new stripe to which we have given Victory's name. You will like the pattern—and you will also like the models and the lines of the new Spring Suits it has been cut into. Come in and see!

The Easter Suit
It is well to place your order now for your Spring Suit and avoid the inevitable rush later. Style restrictions are now removed, with the result that there is no "stand-up" on patch pockets, Norfolk Jackets or double-breasted suits; with the passing of the war, brighter fabrics have also come to the front.

Our truly comprehensive stock of the best foreign and domestic wools is now at its best, from which your clothes will be made with that touch of distinction and individuality for which we are noted. Suits, $40 to $70.

To Entertain Foreign Students.

At the entertainment which will be held for the foreign students of the University this evening at their club rooms on Spruce street, several excellent numbers will be given. The Ammer Jean Hill and Helen Mayhew, of the Broad street Conservatory of Music, will render several selections, Mrs. Hausmant will also play several numbers on the violin, in her last appearance in this country before sailing for Denmark.

Purchasing War Savings Stamps

You buy a SAFETY RAZOR—use a blade once or twice or possibly three times, then the edge is dulled. Why throw it away? It's there any excuse for doing so except for the reason that you have no way to sharpen the blade?

Bring them to us—

We will "sharpen them good as new" for just a few cents per dozen, and our work is done by experts. When they get dull, bring them in again.
