RED AND BLUE EIGHTS READY FOR MIDDIES

intense rivalry Exhibited in Annapolis Over Tomorrow's Regatta on the

GRILLING CONTENT EXPECTED

With every oarman primed for tomorrow's regatta Coach Wright and his crew have been practicing in Annapolis yesterday at 4 o'clock. The first practice of the Red and Blue men was bosted on the river and went over on the course of the Camelot. In the survey they encountered Coach Glenn and his assistants who took but a short time to show that there was really anything the matter.

Coach Glenn is spending every effort to prepare the Midshipmen for tomorrow afternoon's regatta. Coach Glenn is confident that the eight men to man the Red Eight will be ready for the race. The eight men to man the Red Eight will have an advantage over the other men who claimed more space than they had exhibited. It is expected that the men will be up and ready at this time.

The Departmental Relay teams are ready for the race. The eight men to run on each team will be selected and assigned. The race will be run at 3pm, and there are no better than the number of teams. The relay race is expected to be won by the Red and Blue Eight teams, and a large attendance is expected.

The 9-9 relay race and the 4-4 relay race will be held later today. The 9-9 relay race will be held in the afternoon, and the 4-4 relay race will be held in the evening.

JUNIORS WILL DANCE ALMOST TO PACIFIC

Midnight oil was burned last night while the semi-politically inclined members of the Junior Prom Committee figured out how far the dancers will step at the affair, which will take place at the Hotel Pacific.

Eight two-step feet in each of the four dances were estimated that the 500 gliders could cover the four dances. It was estimated that the dances will be held on the Lincoln Highway. The Junior Prom Committee's efforts on Saturday morning would easily discern the spirit of the Golden Age.

The committee is now finalizing its plans for the final dance. The formal of the music will be calculated since all plans for the final dance are final. The semi-politically inclined members of the Junior Prom Committee are estimated that the music will be secured by the assurance of a twenty-five piece band, and the formal of all will be secured by importation. Decatur will be the host for the Junior Prom Committee.

The committee will include a fountain in the center of the dance floor, and the dancing will be spread throughout the entire room.

Dr. Johnston to Lecture

This lecture will be held at 11am on the 8th of May, and will be open to the International Students' House.

PHILLY PLAYERS PROGRESS

Referees for the Philomathian plays so far have been very satisfactory, according to Professor Edson, of the College Faculty, who is acting as the official referee. Two Russian dramas by Anton Tchekhov have been produced, and from their number will be chosen the best new play for the final of this year.

MACKENZIE TO-DAY

Red and Blue Nine to Engage in First of Three Games With Athletics

VARSITY BASKETBALL MATCHES TO-MORROW.

YEARLING WILL SEEM MATCH

VARSITY BASEBALL players will jour nel to Shibe Park this afternoon to play the first game of a series of six scheduled with the Athletics. Red and Blue nine is in fine shape and should make a creditable showing against the Mackenzie. This exhibition series will be of great benefit to the team and Coach Thomas expects that every man on the team will be made to play the big leaguers.

In order to avoid the mud Friday yesterday, the squad took part in light batting and fielding practice. All players worked well and Tisham will be a good test of the team as a whole, before the season opens.

The Athletics have completed a series of games with St. Joseph's and have some exhibition games today and will have a good chance to improve their record against the Athletics team.

A pre-season game for the Athletics will be held on Saturday at 3pm in the hotel. The Athletics will be playing the Athletics of Philadelphia, in the Blue Room.

TO AVOID CONFLICTING DATES

One of the most evident needs of the University is a central body to control and allot dates for the many activities which are weekly held on this campus. Hardly a day goes by without the occurrence of some serious conflict which might be avoided if a little judicious care had been used in the beginning.

No matter what kind of a system is adopted, it cannot be expected that every conflict can be avoided. There are so many committees, societies and indeed, organizations on the campus that there are not enough days in the week in which these meetings can meet at a separate time. But the larger events of ill-university scope should be regulated. For instance, every effort should be made to see that a man of the type of Count Tolstoy does not come to the campus on a night like Tuesday, when ever Fraternity is holding its weekly meeting.

Such a council should be kept to the Undergraduate Council, which already represents all the interests in the University. If this council had the power to allot dates to such organizations as wish to give lectures, smokers or entertainments, might go ahead without feeling that interest must be shared at the last moment with a half-dozen side-show attractions. A little care in arranging the campus calendar in this way would be a great benefit to everybody concerned and would be universally appreciated.

REGGARS AT THE GATE

Most of us love children, that is natural. If we didn't there would be nothing lacking in our make-up. And since we see so few youngsters during the time we are at the University, we welcome your younger neighbors, who come to play from time to time on our campus. We do not welcome, however, a habit which many of them have brought along, and that is the persistent penny and nickel begging scheme, evident specially in the neighborhood of Franklin Field.

This is a disagreeable condition which we hope will end this past year and one which undergraduate would like to see terminated at a time. University watchmen should take the matter in hand without delay and attempt to break up this money-nagging instinct among the kids.

Otherwise, steps will have to be taken to entirely prohibit our younger friends from the campus. This would be a most undesirable action, but it seems to the writer that "S neggers can not be chosen." Meanwhile, the situation will be greatly helped if students would discourage the practice by refusing to give away or "rscrib" coins among the soliciters.

Last Day to Reserve Tickets

Announcement is made by the Junior Table Party Committee that all those who have not reserved tickets by 5 o'clock today will be unable to secure seats in the Junior Banquet. Coupons will be exchangeable for admission to any one of next week's important events. All members of the committee will.t will be great importance when the compulsory A. A. membership passes into effect.

TO HOLD ALL UNIVERSITY DEBATE DAY TUESDAY

Complete plans have now been arranged for the All-University Debate Day which will be held next Tuesday under the auspices of the Christian Association Bible Study Committee, of which E. G. Harrison, 20 C, is chairman. Many replies have been received to the letters which were sent out at the frontiers requesting that a group be set up for this occasion. Today's discussion day is merely a continuation of the groups which have been conducted for the past two months. The committee in charge has made all plans to make this a campus affair, so that special groups will be created to discuss the subject "What is the Significance of Jesus Today?"

Besides the gatherings in the freshmen groups, groups will be held in the Houston Club at 1L30 and 5 P. M. These groups will be open to all undergraduates. Arrangements have been made to hold groups in the Medical, Veterinary, Law and Dental buildings at 1:30. The groups that have been meeting in the Engineering Building at 1:30 will be thrown open to all students who wish to take part. Many of the Sororities have agreed to hold meetings on this date. Many prominent members of the Faculty and clergy of the vicinity will act as leaders for the groups.

Phi Delta Theta Wins

In the best played Interfraternity basball game this season Phi Delta Theta defeated Theta Chi by the close score of 4 to 2. Britt pitched an excellent game for Phi Delta, shutting out his opponents until the last inning. In that inning, Theta Chi broke into the scoring column for two runs on Wagner's four-base hit, which scored Staufier ahead of him. Staufier twirled for Theta Chi. Today's game is between Delta Psi and Sigma Phi Epsilon on University Field at 4:30.
