UESDJ are All all wool, in great Diversity of Fabrics of Pattern, of Model, and -of course-in all sizes up into the Fifties for men of large proportions! We've plumped on the new Woolens woven since the Armistice was signed. And we're glad we did, for the country was hungry for them. The consequence is that we saved on the initial costs by taking them on the jump—the demand has run away from the supply!

Equally important is the fact that they are NEW! And we have the newest of the new, the bespoken and ordered in advance while the mills were making up their lines! New Flannels that show their freshness in every strand and fiber and color tone—new blues, new browns, new grays of various shades from darkest Oxford to creamy whiteness of full grown-blown May! And VICTORY STRIPE Flannels, which are back ground from darkest Oxford to creamy whiteness of brown or of blue embellished with hairline units of Old Glory's important colors! New worsted, new cheviots, new cassimere, new hopsack weaves in a shimmer of gold and brown; new novelty patterns show their freshness in every strand of Pennsylvania Dorms.

There is no "stand-up" on patch pockets, Norfolk Jackets or double-breasted suits; with the passing of the war, brighter fabrics have also come to the front. Our truly comprehensive stock of the best foreign and domestic woolens is now at its head, from which your clothes will be made with that touch of distinction and individuality for which we are noted. Suits, $40 to $70.
