PHI KAPPA PSI WINS FRATERNITY TROPHY

PHI Gamma Delta and Zeta Beta Tau take Second and Third Honors in Track Meet

DUNN and PITTITI STAR.

By capturing first place in five of the eight meets, the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity held the Interfraternity Track Meet yesterday. Phi Kappa Psi won with a total score of 30 points, followed by Zeta Beta Tau with a total of 20 points. The Phi Gamma Delta team took third place in the Interfraternity Track Meet with 17 points.

MASS-MEETING TO-DAY.

Every man who has the interest of Pennsylvania at heart will attend the All-University Mass-Meeting to be held at 10:30 this morning in the Union College Auditorium. Matters of vital importance will be discussed, concerning the present position of the University.

VARISY AND JUNIOR CREWS LEAVE FOR YALE REGATA

Regular Practice Held on Schuylkill Yesterday, in Preparation for Races at New Haven

Regular practice of the first crews was held on the Schuylkill yesterday, as the shells or rowing boats will be taken back from Antoinette in time to put into the water for a workout. Only two days' practice will be possible before the shells leave for Yale, as the shells will not arrive tomorrow night. No practice will be lost, however, as a shell will be put on the floor for the W hoseas a warming up for the Yale race. No changes are likely in the Varsity crew, as the same order that they did in the Antoinette regatta will be kept. The crew is now one of the best in the country, and will be taken on the Yale trip on June 26. The crew will receive, also, the most attention, as it is well known that the Yale crew is the strongest in the country.

ANNUAL JUNIOR-COMMITTEE.

F. O. Matthews, who won the 100-yard dash in the Spring Handicap on Saturday, was again victorious in this event yesterday. He won this event, as he did the 100-yard dash track, due to the rain, he made the best showing of the day. W. R. Lanier, a Junior, of the Phi Kappa Psi team, captured first honors in the 220-yard dash. takım captured first honors in the 220-yard dash.

P. Darrow, '21 W'h., who took first place in the Interfraternity Track Meet yesterday, as the shells arrive tomorrow from Antoinette, will be represented. The Phi Gamma Delta team will also receive some attention, as the shells will not arrive until tomorrow night. No practice will be lost, however, as a shell will be put on the floor for the Yale race.

Many ENTRIES FOR RELAYS.

Eugene C. Smith, of the Arendell Club, has announced that he will make an appearance in the 100-yard dash at New Haven. Eugene C. Smith, of the Arendell Club, has announced that he will make an appearance in the 100-yard dash at New Haven.

PAINTING THE SCENERY.

The scenery has been completed for the Junior banquet, which will take place in the Union College Auditorium, on April 23. The banquet will be attended by guests from the surrounding colleges. The scenery will be painted with grapes, fruit, and flowers. After the banquet, the scenery will be left in the hands of the students for future use.

TO GIVE EASIER DANCES.

The Student Body will hold its annual ball this fall. The Green Room will be reserved for the dance, and the social activities of the evening will be held there.

1922 TRACK MEN TO MEET.

Coach Robertson will give final instructions to the track men with Hill School, on Saturday, to be ready for the morning's track meet. The team will leave for New Haven this evening, and will be entered in the 8:30 meet, which will be held on the 1922 track meets.

YALE REGATA.

The Yale Regata will be held on the Schuylkill River, in Philadelphia, on Sunday, May 1. The regata will consist of a 4-mile race, a 2-mile race, and a 1-mile race. The Yale team will be represented by a crew of eight.

What is Easter without a New Suit from Guiford’s?

Like Easter without eggs, or golf after July 1st—empty, meaningless. Easter is synonymous with newness and the expression of cheer through new clothes.
