VARSITY EIGHT DEFEATS YALE

Pennsylvania Oarsmen Win by Three Lengths Over American Records.

Junior Boat Loses Hard Race

Sweeping over the Homestead course in the Columbia Cup race, the Pennsylvania crew finally made good the lead first gained the day before, and went on to win by a margin of three lengths. The Princeton boat, in second place, established a new record for a mile race on the Homestead course.

The Varsity crew was won by the superior stamina of the Pennsylvania boat, which came out on top after the first two miles. The two crews rowed evenly until that point, but the Pennsylvania boat started to gain an advantage and at the end of the first four miles overtook the Princeton boat.

In the field events, Princeton won by a margin of four lengths. The high jump, held at the end of the first half, was won by the Princeton team. The Penn men came second and third in the event.

SWEENY CHOSEN TO LEAD VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM

The Holy Cross Cross Country team was a success in 1923, leading the field in the annual production. The Varsity team was chosen to lead the field, and Sweeney, in the opinion of the faculty, was chosen to lead the team.

FRESHMEN DEFEAT HILL SCHOOL BY CLOSE SCORE

The Penn's Varsity Eight defeated the Yale crew on the Schuylkill River yesterday. The Penn boat, which led the race after the first half, never relinquished its lead, and won by a margin of three lengths. The Yale boat, which came in second, established a new record for a mile race on the Homestead course.

Pennington's scholarship to the University of Pennsylvania is expected to be renewed for another year. Pennington, a member of the freshman track team, was chosen to lead the field, and his performance in the field events was considered to be outstanding.

SOCER TEAM EASY VICTORS IN GAME WITH PENN STATE

The Penn's soccer team easily defeated the Penn State team yesterday, winning the game by a score of 4-0. The Penn team was led by Sweeney, a member of the varsity team, who was chosen to lead the field.

REVIEW OF RELAYS JUSTIFIES ITS NAME

Throughout the University and West Chester, the annual track and field meet was conducted for the Varsity League, with Yale as a large competitor. After the spring rains, the course was in fine condition, but it was expected to be under foot in the first half of the meet. The script has not been set for the event, and the direction the campus must be careful to reduce their time. Lewis A. Berry, who has the reputation of being one of the best American students in Philadelphia, will fire the starting gun.

A meeting of all the workers will be held today at 1:30 in the 11th floor auditorium. Selection of partnership is expected to be ruled out, so that the territory to be covered will be decided by the campaign committee.

ASPECT RECORD PERFORMANCES

On next Friday and Saturday, April 28 and 29, the Twenty-fifth Annual Relay Carnival will be held on Franklin Field. The Penn teams will be a big draw in itself and will make it desirable to participate. On the first day of the meet, the campus events will be the pennant championship, with the Harvard running, the hop, step and jump, the track and field meet, and the relay championship. The second day will be the pennant championship, and the Harvard running.

VICTORY, PARTIAL OR COMPLETE?

The war is over, but the war is not won. That is to say, victory warfare as we have known it in a single campaign has not come. Nor can it come until the League of Nations conference has done its work. The Victory Loan has been one of the most successful campaigns, but other tasks disposed of in like manner. Letting down on the job now simply sets at naught all we have recently been told to consider — to be alive and thinking all our duty as University trained men to consider but a moment. And it is our constant effort. These facts are apparent to everyone of us if we stop and think of the matter, and the answer is not a temporary repetition and then "bump it a couple" to help defray the Kaiser's general expenses.

OUR TRIP TO VAYLE.

No finer example of reality that should exist between two great universities could have been shown. Our ship that passed while the Pennsyl vania crews were at New Haven for the Yale race last Saturday. The mass of ZB squared no effort to make the Red and Blue men at home and to secure them every convenience. On the return after the Yale coach, extended both were at speakers. Speeches were made by the captains of both ships, as well as by the coaches. In generous terms the Yale men expressed appreciation for the hospitality shown them in Philadelphi a at the time of the race on the Schuylkill a year ago.

Yet the competition between the opposing ships on the Hosianon Saturday was so keen or spirited be cause of the upper of the night before. Both Pennsylvania and Yale were out to win, but on both sides the feeling of strong rivalry prevailed and not the rivalry of friendship. It is under conditions such as these which existed Saturday that competition between two universities really proves satisfactory, benevolent and worth while.

COMMUNICATION.

Editor of the Varsity Times. The Sophomore Ball Committee, having been assured through the voy of the class to arrange an informal affair, has announced a ball shirt hop. To the great majority of the class the idea is repulsive, both from a physical and financial standpoint.

Struggling into the social gagans on a bally who are a remnant of the 20th century, Chirch, while some few of us, strangely enough, must consider the old outfit occasioned by such a decision on the part of the committee. The matter should be taken up immediately by the class. Clique rule is unnecessary and undesirable.

CELEBRATE PENNSYLVANIA DAY.

Northeast High School Conducts Chapel at Old Alma Mater.

Northeast High School accorded with the strains of "Hail Pennsylvania" yesterday, the occasion being the annual observance of "Pennsylvania Day" at the institution. About thirty members of the University Northeast Club marched to the high school building and attended the chapel exercises in the morning.

After the speech of welcome by Dr. Morris, the service was turned over to the club. Harvey Price, as president of the Pennsylvania organizations, made an address and the opening prayer is reply to the address of welcome.

There's a "because" for every "why."

Why do so many men of critical taste and common sense select this shop in preference to all the other good stores to buy new clothes for particular occasions —such as Easter and the like? Because they are sure to find here that subtle, superior effect in design and coloring, that super-excellence of material and workmanship (at reasonable cost) | improved and developed by the "T"S" ONLY LOGIC

What folly and waste it would be to think of such unfortunate days as those which were confined to the long list of Pennsylvania's players who were out to win. But on both sides the feeling of strong rivalry prevailed and not the rivalry of friendship. It is under conditions such as these which existed Saturday that competition between two universities really proves satisfactory, benevolent and worthwhile.

Perry Spring Suits

Perry Spring Topcoats

We've told you about our new Spring Merchandise—how we got it fresh from the looms just as soon as they started to hum to the new-old tune of colorful fabrics designed for civilian wear. And you know what a slue of them we stocked up, both from what you've read here, and what you've seen on our tables as well as on the backs of your friends who told you where they bought the clothes you asked them about because you admired them.

But, after all, mills make merchandise for anybody who wants it, and while we got the jump on many a store, it's really something more essential than newness that makes "N. B. T." Clothes preferable to any and to all others.

It is the character of "N. B. T." workmanship.

That is the principle on which, of all others, we stand, and on which we ask you to buy our clothes. We believe that they are cut better, made better, graded better in sizes, and will fit better than any other clothes of which we have knowledge—but none—custom made or ready made—anywhere in America today!

If your suit doesn't FIT, if it doesn't set right, if it is too tight here or too loose there, if the collar hangs back from your neck, if the blades are turned, if the pockets, Norfolk Jackets or double-breasted suits; with the passing of the war, brighter fabrics have also come into favor. ARCHITECTS WIN HONORS.

Pennsylvania Fiftieth as Winners of Beaux Arts Medal.

Following the example set by the Architectural School in former years, Pennsylvania's senior architects won many honors in the annual contest conducted by the Beaux Arts School in New York City. In the exhibition of plans for a group of college buildings, first honor medals were won by C. H. Beeler, W. L. Lovellton, J. F. Quinkert and J. Smieh. Awards of second honor medals were made to S. Merten and H. C. Ander and for work of the same character. J. C. Janney, W. L. Lovellton and J. Smieh received honor medals for their designs of an Early Christian Apse.

Several Pennsylvania architects entered in the competition for the Paris prize. The winner of this competition is awarded a scholarship to study design in Paris for two and a half years. Pennsylvania's medal was awarded to J. C. Anderson for his plans of a public building.

BASE 25 OFFICERS BACK.

Many Faculty Members Among Leaders of University Unit.

Eleven officers of Base Hospital No. 25, the University of Pennsylvania Unit, left yesterday for Camp Dix, where they will be discharged. The unit is headed by Lieutenant-Colonel Caswell, Professor of Surgery in the Medical School, and former football star. Most of the officers are members of the faculty of the Medical School, and will return to the University as soon as they are mustered out of the service.

Colonel Caswell speaks enthusiastically of the record of the unit in the Philadelphia region, which was composed of names of the University Hospital and enrol-listed students, and he looks forward to the army career. The officers of the unit spent the Easter holidays in Philadelphia on a short leave before reporting at Camp Dix.
