PROMINENT MEN WILL SPEAK AT NORTHFIELD

LEADERS in many Walks of Life to Address Student Conference.

EXEMPLARY PROGRAM OFFERED

While Northfield boasts greatly of having Dr. John R. Mott to lead its sessions and J. B. W. Wilson the leader of the speakers, these two are not only prominent men who will address the students at the Conference.

To all the student leaders in New England colleges no one is better known as a public speaker, leader in religious thought and life, than Dr. J. B. W. Wilson. Charles Brown, LL.D., Dean of Yale School of Religion. He has been the leading Calvinists of New England, and is a leader in the denomination. Dean Brown's specialty at the Conference is to accentuate what he has long said in various speeches, namely, don't let the students in the mind.

It is hoped that he will be able to address at Northfield for several days, in order to have his most personal interviews with the constituents.

He is a better man than Dr. Robert E. Speer could be selected. Dr. Speer is head of the History Department at Cornell University. He is a man of remarkable degree, and his addresses are short, well thought out, and accurate and accurate knowledge. He has an extensive knowledge of the world, and is a specialist on education and famous people in South America.

The leaders in thought in China, the Hsii, D. W. Y. holds a pronounced position at Northfield; at this time he is most appropriate. He is a man of the highest order, one that harmonizing political questions that arise in the far East, as well as a presentation of changes in religious thoughts that are going on in China.

At the last meeting of the Southern Student Movement, Henry K. Coffin, of Pennsylvania and Charles W. Kilgore of Chicago.

LAST GATHERING OF CAMPUS
WITS TOMORROW EVENING

At the final meeting of the Punch Bowl Board, tomorrow evening, the smoker will be held. The put-together will be held at the Center, President P. E. H. at the bell.

The meeting will be held for the next two weeks, which will appear the first week and Wednesday at 8 p.m. for the smoker. At the smoker, the last first, this last meeting must cause much cancellation among the campus smokers, but Northfield has promised to overlook all actions of theiber Pennsylvanians at the time.

Despite many efforts on the part of the Columbia Board, the business entered into the business, so that it stands.

As the above picture indicates, the number of people who have come from the various schools, Northfield is a world known.

This will be an event of the greatest character, when the Freshmen defeated West Philadelphia in the West Philadelphia High School by the score of 4-4. Many of the players, both freshmen and seniors, deserve the highest credit, and it is hoped that they will express their appreciation.

The set of the thing is a long time, to all past and present members, and by hundreds of others that it stands for "Friend." And Friends has been by the Student, alumni, and students of the Student, who have contributed to the构成 the present faculty.

In the past, the sources for the photos have already been taken from recovered historical characters.

The list of former and present members of the 1919 program, or any student interested in the photograph, will be shown may be obtained from any member of the Undergraduate Club. Workmen and comic characters, which are the leading qualities which are not only to make up a successful show and Kibb and Wip are, the more detailed, are the photographs which are to be shown in this picture:

With the admission of the photograph, there is the number to be made, or at the beginning of the picture, the photograph was captured by the photograph, and the University, and the Club is confident that the proper interest will be displayed.

There will be a prize winner, the recognition goes to the recognition, the Guards and Wip being sufficient reward far the whole project.

"It is difficult to find a motto for an article of the nature which would arouse adverse criticism of the University. There was either a neglect of the formal or wilful misstatement, or careless statement which could be misconstrued.

The matter has been authentically investigated by President Pickering, and the paper which was responsible has focused attention to itself and called forth a small amount of comment. There goes to the charge of the University of Pennsylvania that it does not realize that the pressural gruel of must be assimilated with articles of such a future.

IDEAS

Many undergraduates are often seen conveying certain men large to the front, leaving others behind. Undoubtedly, energy and a willingness to work hard and long will account to a great extent for the success of many. However, there is one phase of the situation seldom recognized by students. The importance of ideas is too little realized by the average student.

The man who has ideas on every subject is indeed fortunate. There are too many people in the world whose ideas have been formed for them, as it were, by custom and precedent. The great tool today is for new ideas, for ideas which will tend to improve. And, to-day, this is one of the greatest burdens of our University life during the period of reconstruction. The opportunities offered next year for an "an" have ramifications, but without notions on the part of the undergraduate body as a whole there opportunities will slip by unheeded.

BRAZILIAN STUDENTS ORGANIZE
Form Last Branch of Nation's South American Organization.

For the purpose of bringing all Brizilian students, as well as all others
interested in affairs of that country,
into closer cooperation, local students
from Brazil recently organized a Philadelphia branch of the Brazilian Students' Association. This association was founded several years ago to aid
students in that country and to disseminate correct information regarding Brazil. Five different Brazilian states are represented among the charter members of the University society.

Prof. Henrique de Costa, of the Towesto Scientific School faculty, was leader of the larger bodies, and gave a short address outlining the purposes of the association. The national body according to Mr. Costa, is composed of several independent organizations in various cities and colleges. All, under a central management, which is elected yearly by representatives of all the branches. The association wishes to emphasize the fact that it desires not only to be a source of as-cistance to its members, but also that the members themselves are eager to give the people of the United States all the knowledge they can concerning their own country. Further infornnation can be secured by addressing the secretary, Albert O. Pool, at 525 South Forty-fifth Street.

WHITNEY OFFICERS SELECTED.

Engineers Choose Society Leaders for Next Year's Activities.

At the recent elections of the Whitney Engineering Society the officers for next year were elected. Paul R.

was appointed president. The vice-president will be filled by Harry E. Poller,
'28 M. E., of Philadelphia, while Charles H. Martin, Jfd., '28 E. E.,

The society has completed its program of activities for the present year.
The new officers will carry out next year's activities, many plans for which
