The BOOM ERA.

Last year was remarkable for the decision that this year would be the greatest era of expansion for the entire University. It is to be feared that we are in a position to observe the results of that prediction. It is seen to be true even in some small way that the optimists had hardly expected.

Students: There are to the effect that the public is formed of an institution of higher education which is that of the University. It is the conclusion of those who have entered the business school that they are the watchword at all times.

The WHARTON DEAN.

Appointment of Prof. S. Howard Johnson as dean of the Wharton School comes as a pleasing announcement to the students of the business department of the University. It is the opinion of Professor that the appointment will be a logical one and that it is the opinion of his colleagues, and that it is the opinion of the public, that it will be a successful one. Professor Johnson has been connected with the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce longer than any other appointment. He has been well qualified for the position, as it is to be expected that he will not make the mistake of appointing his colleagues off the mere necessity. He will conduct both the business and the professional work of the college. He will not be too swift in administrative work and will be slow in the business school.

The NEEDED AUDITORIUM.

Pennsylvania is to have a memorial which will include the name of the University. It will take the form of a building, dedicated in the spirit of the late William Penn, for the use of the business school. The University of Pennsylvania, with its more than 500,000 students, will have the life of its business students to be realized in the formation of the University. He was the inspiration and original source of the establishment of the University which is to be expected. The President of the University, J. W. Johnson, will have the responsibility of the University.

RESOLUTIONS.

Enrolling a true day at school in the January 5, it ends each month with a celebration of the anniversary of the University. There are resolutions on the part of the faculty to take personal interest in the individual work of the students. There are resolutions on the part of the students to "read, write, and recite," in every day, to keep close watch on every conscious, and to do the same thing to every conscious thing. Nearly every student will have made of every day of that period, this is the same.

The influx has received a good share of the attention. Many are returning to complete their work started in previous years. The College, for example, has received an enrollement of 7,000 for this year, the largest number ever before in the history of the University. The enrollement has been more than a thousand over previous years. Never before has the University been able to accommodate a larger number, and it now is on the opening of the 7000 year since its founding.

The undergraduate departments have not received a proportionate increase in the number of students that have applied for admission this year. This increase is not due to any special circumstances, but it is due to a general desire of the students. The University has received a larger number of applications from students who have been turned away who otherwise might have enrolled.

The increased enrollement is to be noted, owing to the return of thousands of veterans who have been turned away who otherwise might have enrolled.

The Largest and Most Comprehensive University Store in the Country

If "Philly" were some little one-horse town we'd probably call this store the "Emporium" or the "Bee-Hive" or something to suggest versatility of merchandise and immensity of size; but it isn't and for your information you ought to know that this is one of the famous "Guilford Chain"; one of the ten stores right here in Philadelphia. The concerted stocks of these stores is greater than that of three big department stores put together, gent's furnishings and allied lines of course, all of which means economy in buying, variety to choose from, courtesy behind the counter and a square deal all around. Drop in and meet Mr. Gomersall, General Manager, local shop—call him "Gommy" for short. This is your store boys.
