THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1919.

There has never been a time when life insurance sales were harder to make. The question of the day is what is the method of selling insurance? The answer to this question is, salesmanship. Salesmen are not selling insurance; they are selling themselves. They are not selling the insurance company; they are selling the permanence of plan and the necessity for it.

We are always ready to talk with young men interested in entering the life insurance business. There is a large demand for able young men in the field of insurance. Our company is the largest in the state and is rapidly building up in the field of life insurance.
