VERDEN OUTPLAYS THE JUNIORS
In the opening battle of the intercollegiate scholastic season, the Verden Junior team defeated the Juni- ers, 2-0, at the Verden field yesterday afternoon. The Juni- ers were led by Bobbi R. Gault and W. J. Farley, while Jack Crocker, Verden's star, was the key player in the game. The Juni- ers had a chance to get in the game, but were held to one point, while Verden's offensive play kept the score at 2.

Due to the weather conditions, the game was played in a downpour, and the Juni- ers' chances to gain an advantage were limited. Verden's defense was strong, and the Juni- ers' only opportunity to score came in the second half, when a penalty shot was awarded against Verden. However, the Juni- ers were unable to capitalize on this opportunity, and Verden's defense held firm, maintaining the 2-0 lead throughout the game.

The Juni- ers' defense was also strong, but they were unable to prevent Verden from scoring. Verden's defense was composed of five players, while the Juni- ers' defense consisted of four players. Verden's goalkeeper, Bobbi R. Gault, was the key player in the Juni- ers' defense, and he was able to keep the Juni- ers from scoring.

The game was played in a downpour, which made the field conditions difficult for both teams. However, the Juni- ers were able to maintain their composure and play a solid game. They were led by Bobbi R. Gault and W. J. Farley, who were both able to control the ball and make effective passes.

The Verden team was led by Jack Crocker, who was the key player in the game. He was able to make effective passes and score a goal in the first half, which gave Verden the lead. The Juni- ers were unable to score in the second half, and Verden was able to hold onto the lead and win the game.

Despite the weather conditions, the game was a good test for both teams. The Juni- ers were able to show their strength and ability to play under difficult conditions, while Verden was able to show their strength and ability to control the ball and make effective passes.

The game was a close one, with Verden winning by a score of 2-0. The Juni- ers were able to show their strength and ability to play under difficult conditions, while Verden was able to show their strength and ability to control the ball and make effective passes. The game was a good test for both teams and was a good experience for both players.
