TYPICAL WINTER OUTFIT

Better Cheer Needed

The University year is not yet half over, but already it is apparent that it will be one of the best in the University's history. The enthusiasm of the crowd is unmatchable, and all activities will begin from the very day we enter—not to say that the tournament of the season is over. In fact, it is a remarkable sight to see the way that the University is taking to winter sports. The games are on, and the fans are out in force. It is a time of great excitement, and it is to be hoped that it will continue. But it is also a time of great responsibility, and we must all do our part to make the year a success.

The football team is in fine form, and it is to be hoped that it will continue to grow stronger. The game against Princeton is a big one, and it is to be hoped that it will be a good one. The fans are out in force, and it is to be hoped that they will all be in good spirits.

The basketball team is also in fine form, and it is to be hoped that it will continue to grow stronger. The game against Cornell is a big one, and it is to be hoped that it will be a good one. The fans are out in force, and it is to be hoped that they will all be in good spirits.

The wrestling team is also in fine form, and it is to be hoped that it will continue to grow stronger. The game against Pennsylvania is a big one, and it is to be hoped that it will be a good one. The fans are out in force, and it is to be hoped that they will all be in good spirits.

The hockey team is also in fine form, and it is to be hoped that it will continue to grow stronger. The game against Harvard is a big one, and it is to be hoped that it will be a good one. The fans are out in force, and it is to be hoped that they will all be in good spirits.

The track team is also in fine form, and it is to be hoped that it will continue to grow stronger. The game against Penn is a big one, and it is to be hoped that it will be a good one. The fans are out in force, and it is to be hoped that they will all be in good spirits.

The fencing team is also in fine form, and it is to be hoped that it will continue to grow stronger. The game against Yale is a big one, and it is to be hoped that it will be a good one. The fans are out in force, and it is to be hoped that they will all be in good spirits.

The tennis team is also in fine form, and it is to be hoped that it will continue to grow stronger. The game against Princeton is a big one, and it is to be hoped that it will be a good one. The fans are out in force, and it is to be hoped that they will all be in good spirits.

Too much Turkish or Just enough Turkish?

If you set, at least, smoking is exactly like eating.

The more rich and delicious a certain food, the more care people take to avoid eating too much of it—for instance, plum pudding or candy.

The same rule applies to smoking.

Cigar smokers, for example, are today much more careful to avoid eating too much tobacco. (In fact, more and more cigar smokers now smoke cigarettes too, to help cut down the number of cigars.)

In the same way, cigarette smokers are learning that Turkish tobacco, delicious as it is, is so unctuous and heavy that a man can easily smoke too much of it.

But they are learning also, instead of cutting down the number of cigarettes per day, they can cut down on the proportion of Turkish in each cigarette.

How to reduce on Turkish

They may do this by switching from straight Turkish to part Turkish, or "Turkish blend," etc. Mixtures.

The first Turkish blend cigarettes show any Turkish blend cigarette, perhaps this is the main reason why so many smokers of straight Turkish cigarettes keep switching to Fatima.

Less worry about "too many"

A NEW reason undoubtedly is in the fact that Fatima treats smokers so kindly. The Turkish is so perfectly "mellowed" by the other tobaccos in the blend that Fatima smokers never have any worry about smoking "too many!"

* * * * *

At any rate, whatever the reason may be, Fatima keeps on attracting more and more of those smokers who, if they preferred the fancy, expensive, straight Turkish cigarette, could easily afford them.

This is shown, of course, by Fatima's record in having won the top mark as to sales in so many of the fashionable clubs and hotels and other prominent places all over the country.

How much is "just enough"?

Does not Fatima's record seem to prove that this is the one cigarette containing just enough Turkish? Not too much too too little Turkish, but just enough. Make a test for yourself.

Steadfastly keeping in line with the demands of the public more and more of its smokers, the Fatima men have been increasing the strength of that part of the blend which contains straight Turkish tobacco, the result being in the direction of a "just enough" blend of Turkish tobacco.

In one way, at least, smoking is less worry about "too much".
