CONDUCT VOTE ON FAVORITE SMOKES

Matt Quinlan Question of Most Popular Cigarette to be Decided Monday

SCHEDULES TO BE ANNOUNCED AT WRESTLING TEAM RALLY THURSDAY

Wharton Hall assembly will be the scene of the wrestling rally on Thursday, November 16, when the annual Mooted Question of Most Popular Cigarettes will be decided. The question will be decided by popular vote, and the winner will be declared following a debate between the proponents and opponents of each brand. The debate will be moderated by the staff of The Pennsylvanian, and the audience will be asked to vote on their favorite brand of cigarettes. The winners will be announced at the end of the debate.

SMOKERS HOLD FIRST WEEKLY PRACTICE MONDAY

Cigarette Leopold and Prospero, Ltd. will hold their weekly practice Monday night, November 13, in the Gymnasium. The practice will be open to all members of the team, and all are encouraged to attend.

The Photo Department of the University will hold the annual Ringer Prize competition for the best student photograph. The competition will be open to all students, and the winner will receive a cash prize and a engraved trophy. The deadline for entries is December 1.

UNDERGRADUATE COUNCIL PRESENTS LOYALTY RESOLUTION FOR ADOPTION

The Undergraduate Council will hold a meeting on Thursday, November 16, to consider a resolution calling for loyalty to the University. The resolution will be presented by the Student Body Council and will address issues such as the importance of maintaining a spirit of unity and cooperation among all students.

FORBES-ROBERTS LECTURE POPULAR

The Forbes-Roberts Lecture Series will feature a lecture on the topic of diversity in the workplace. The lecture will be held on Thursday, November 16, at 7:30 PM in the Student Union. The lecture will be open to all students and staff, and all are encouraged to attend.

PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED VARIETY STATON

President Johnson announced that the University will establish a new variety station, which will be called "The Penn." The station will air on campus radio and will feature a wide range of programming, including music, news, and sports. The station will be staffed by students and will operate under the guidance of the University's Communications Office.

MANAGING COMMITTEE NAMED

A new managing committee has been named to oversee the operation of the University Press. The committee will be responsible for overseeing the publication of all University Press publications, including books, journals, and magazines. The committee will be chaired by John Smith, and it will include representatives from the departments of English, History, and Journalism.

PUBLISHED DAILY

The Pennsylvanian is published daily by the University of Pennsylvania Press. The newspaper is supported by the University and is funded by advertising revenue. The newspaper serves the University community and is open to all students, staff, and faculty.

That Meet in December.
Many chess team aspirants have checked in for the fall tournament, which will commence today. Entry was in order by signing up for the next three months, and a total of 400 players are expected to take part.
In the past, only the best players have been selected, but a new policy has been adopted this year, and any player who has a reasonable chance of winning will be admitted.
The games will be played on Thursdays, and the prize money will be distributed at the end of the season.
