PHILLY, INTRODUCES PLAY COMPETITION

The Pennsylvania Society Institute has announced the establishment of a new play competition, open to all students. The competition aims to foster creativity and inspire new talent in the performing arts. Submissions are due by next month, and the winners will be announced at a special ceremony in April.

TRUSTEES CREATE NEW DEPARTMENT

At its annual meeting yesterday, the Board of Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania announced the creation of a new department, dedicated to the study of the social sciences. The department will be headed by Dr. John Doe, a leading expert in the field. The Board is committed to expanding the scope of the university's offerings and providing students with a well-rounded education.

FRESHERN ELECT CLASS OFFICERS

New freshmen have been elected to serve as class officers for the upcoming academic year. The election was held last night in the Memorial Hall, and the new officers will assume their duties at the beginning of the fall semester. Congratulations to the new leaders of the Class of 2023.

Soccer Enthusiasts Launch Drive for Recognition as Major Sport

The University of Pennsylvania has launched a campaign to recognize soccer as a major sport. The initiative is part of a broader effort to improve the overall student-athlete experience and enhance the visibility of the sport. Fans of the team are encouraged to show their support and help bring soccer to the forefront of university athletics.

TRIANGLES

Dr. Robert Martin, professor of mathematics, has received several invitations to speak at various institutions around the country. His expertise in algebra and number theory make him a sought-after speaker. The University is proud to have such a talented faculty member.

GRADUATION

The Spring 2023 commencement ceremony will be held on May 15th. The University is making preparations for a safe and joyful celebration, with steps in place to ensure the health and well-being of all attendees. Tickets will be available online starting next month.
