Young Men at Penn
Will Be Happy to Know that HEINIE MILLER and LOU LITTLE are the personal representatives of the William J. Wanamaker Store at the University of Pennsylvania.

If you wish clothing ready-to-wear, suits or overcoats built to measure, hats, or furnishing goods of any kind ask either of the boys about them.
We are always ready to talk with young men about entering the life insurance business and gaining the reputation of being a necessity. Be-cause of these conditions the business opens a great opportunity for young men starting in life, requiring no invested capital and offering features such as few lines of business.

FRESHMAN BANQUET TOMORROW

Two Jazz Orchestras Obtained to Furnish Music for Occasion.

According to all indications, the Freshman banquet, which will be held tomorrow night at the Hotel Statler, promises to be one of the best in years. In order to furnish every man present a good time, two just entirely new orchestras will be engaged to furnish music for the occasion. A Freshman quartette will render original vocal selections, including the class song, which has been written by one of the members of the class.

Arrangements are being made to have President Smith present at the all-important event. Mr. H. D. Conlon, who will be the toastmaster for the occasion, will address the Freshmen, as well as Mr. J. F. Keogh, coach of the undefeated Freshman football team. Plans are being made to have Dr. Adams, of the athletic Council, present the members of the team with their uniforms.

As a result of the arrangements for the banquet, it will be made a matter of policy to combine the Freshman banquet of the class of '33 with that of the class of '34.
