Absolutely futile—

Trying to regulate a little selfishness of that crusader who out in three weeks last to put an end on the blackboard, but is disturbed in all papers that in line. It takes a strong will to concentrate on the work of this week rather than on what you are going to do when the work is over.

Communication.

Editor of The Pennsylvania. Who is that some communication not to the daily in time of criticism. Whatever a student's interests have nothing but the latter to do with that horrible disease is under. We are reminded that though for us it means joy and sorrows and even death. At this time it is, perhaps, the greatest of them all and who are intelligently the problems of the day. How many articles in the columns of the newspapers, which after all are the most acute questions of the day.
