ROSTER OF THE VARS...
The University teams are open to members of all classes of the University, and it has not been an unusual occurrence for Fredrooms to play on the team. It is particularly desirable that Fredrooms who have been interested in debating in preparatory or high schools out for these teams in the first year, as the possibilities are that if they do not throw their interest and energy go in the future.

Good debates are usually trained and experienced men, and it is best that those who have ambitions in this line to train themselves in the team. First year. After a lapse of several years, it is hard to again take up the game, those who have been working steadily during the intervening years.

Preliminary the big Ivy Ball will be held in Wintergreen Hall. Every member of the University that is able to will be present at this ball, which is to be the biggest banquet of the year. Wiggers' Continue
Play Rehearsals

At the Mask and Wig club house, last night, candidates for the dancing classes held their second tryout. The men were divided into groups of eight and followed Charles Morgan through a series of steps. The men were based on the ability of the men to pick up the steps, many of which were taken from previous Mask and Wig performances. The next rehearsal will be held tomorrow night, at the same time. The next candidates will hold the second rehearsal this afternoon at 1:00, in the downtown club house. The play this year, "Don Quixote, Sire," will be a typical medieval comedy of the present time and genre type. It is a twosome production and contains a number of music interpolations written by Charles Glines. The stage scenes and costumes, as a whole, Spanish character, were designed by Everett St, Warner, who has been the costume designer for a number of shows in the past. The Play Committee, which meets this evening, will review the plans for the rest of the season, and at the next rehearsal the cast will plan the parts in the different characters, and take everything six or seven men take each part.

The play this year, the club house, the graduate and undergraduate chorus will celebrate "Prom Beauty Night." The club was established by a group of students in 1934. Some of the graduates who will be given honorary mem- bership in the older men. A number of the students are planning to take their part in the play which will be held tomorrow night. The play will be held tomorrow night. The play will be held tomorrow night.

UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL IS RECIPIENT OF LARGE SUM

In addition to the announcement of Provost Smith's resignation, the Trustees of yesterday's meeting acknowledged a gift from the estate of the late Dr. William White, of this city, amounting to $550,000. Of this amount, $100,000 was given to the University Hospital, $10,000 to the Trustees, to be used as they see fit, and $450,000 to the new Surgical Pavilion as the J. William White Memorial, in honor of the distinguished surgeon and trustee, Dr. W. William White. It was also provided that there shall be included in the pavilion a department to be known as the J. William White Surgical Department of Surgery, in honor of Dr. E. Barnes Adams and Charles D. Hart.

TO ENFORCE FRESHMAN RULES
Regulations for First Year Students Must Be Adhered To.

Beginning with today, as instructions of the Freshman regulations will be permitted by the Freshman Vigilance Committee, and especially during Freshman Rushing season, all Freshmen will be compelled to wear the required cap and tie. Although no drastic measures have yet been taken against violators of the rules, justice will now be meted out to all unremorsefully and severity. One of the penalties decreed for offenders will be the publishing of a list containing the names of Freshmen/University students within the next few future.

The first year men have planned to purchase class pipes within the next two weeks, and the following committee has been appointed to arrange for the taking of orders: W. J. Sharkey, chairman; Burgmueller, Cudler H. Durell, W. Crafts, Farrell, A. Funk, H. I. Cameron, L. Law, J. Lewis, Ewen, Wayman.
