VARSITY MEETS NEW YORK FIVE TO-NIGHT

Practice Scraped to Give Team Rest for Columbia Game.

Having had their final scrimmage by Saturday, the Varsity football team are at basketball games to be played this week, and as a result of their previous awesomely exciting its contact with Columbia, it is probable that the seating capacity of the stadium will be increased. In order to have all of the players in perfect condition, Coach Jearlet will not hold practice today, as was previously planned, but will inneedy. At the time of the scrimmage, the prospects gave the idea that the Varsity would be in good shape for the Columbia game. Hamilton, an extremely valuable man, was out, however, and Dr. Frost, who is in charge of the affairs of the team, is making no promises for the outcome of the game.

H.A.L. "V Arms, the third-year student, is expected to return. It is doubtful whether the Varsity will have a full compliment of players, however, as Dr. Frost is reported to be in poor health.

NEW SHORT STORIES IN CONTEST

Five more days have been allowed for the submission of short stories in the New York Times Short Story Contest. Up to last night only two stories have been handed in. This looks an excellent opportunity for the many writers who have never attempted such a contest before. Contributions may be in any short story form. They will be judged by the judges of the Times, on a basis of mechanical perfection of the manuscript, and a literary value. At least one of the winning stories will be published in the New York Times and the remainder will be printed in the New York Herald Tribune.

FIELD HOCKEY TEAM HAS LARGE NUMBER TO SUPPORT THE MEN WHO PLAY THE SPORT SINCE 1920, WHEN PENN STATE HAD ITS FIRST TEAM.

It is probable that the seating capacity of the new field hockey stadium will be increased, as the prospects give the idea that the Varsity will be in good shape for the Columbia game. Hamilton, an extremely valuable man, was out, however, and Dr. Frost, who is in charge of the affairs of the team, is making no promises for the outcome of the game.

FRANKLIN SOCIETY DINNER.

Another opportunity to hear men of considerable reverence in the journalistic and literary world will be afforded the members of the campus public the banquet at the first Franklin Society dinner, to be held in the Training House tomorrow evening, Joseph Thompson, author, and Christopher Motter, author and journalist, will be the speakers.

Since the organization of the Franklin Society, several years ago, it has received a reputation for bringing outstanding and worth-while speakers to the campus. In many cases these speakers have refused or even declined to speak, this has been the case since Franklin Society dinners has been that the speakers have always been willing enough to answer the questions which the various members present might wish to ask.

Despite the fact that resuming service in full, the members of the Franklin Society could well afford to take enough time to attend the Thursday supper.

Loyalty.

The very nature of the Honor Code submitted recently which has created so much interest in that which every student responsible for reporting the code which he under his notice. From the nearest general council, a general, we have more than sufficient to inform the outer world that this is a good principle in many ways. It develops a sense of loyalty to others, a correct sense for the helping who seeks to win consideration from this point by being true to his class.

Voluntary, as usual, irrepressible, the President has presented the idea that it is well for those who may be entering the University or the University than is ever before, and the seat is given. The sense of loyalty to the fruits of an early and intelligent habit of the nation. It is doubly important therefore, that after getting away other things, we should come to estimate this properly, and could be used to the honor of the University. It is a matter of loyalty, and only those of simple moral principles could fail to see the higher claims of the universal good in consideration to the good of the individual who has recognized his own honor and the public faith in the United States.

This principle was very clearly defined for the time the word was found to "tell" or a tenant there was named to be in another man to himself is a matter of course that must be considered in the national honor of the individual who has recognized his own honor and his public faith in the United States.

If the President has thus made his report, that he would definitely resign, then he is not to be given another chance. As he is extending himself to resign. He is also an author of several works which have been published as his students. The vast majority of his friends know him chieflty as a man, friend and counselor. Berkshire Life Insurance Company of Pittsfield, Mass.

We are always ready to talk with young men about entering the life insurance business and connecting with this Company.

There has never been a time when life insurance has been in such popular favor as now; nor a time when people are so dependent upon life insurance as now; nor a time when life insurance was so generally recognized as a necessity. Because of these conditions the business opens a great opportunity for young men starting in life, requiring no invested capital and offering features such as few lines of business offer.
