HOCKEY SEVEN IN CRUCIAL CONTEST
University Pushes-Creens to Meet Temple's Strongest Ice Blasting Pair

RUSHING AT GAME FORBIDDEN

Temple seven, too far astride of Pennsylvania's horizon of achievement, was well on its way in the first period. With the score tied at 1-1, the Red and Blue dominated the play, and a goal put Pennsylvania ahead. "01, Just a minute before the game ended, and victory was assured for Temple.

In a fast game held in Weightman rink, the Temple seven, under the guidance of Coach R. B. Scott, played a good game. The Temple line-up included three freshman and four sophomores. The Pennsylvania line-up was even more balanced, with three freshmen and four sophomores.

The Temple seven, led by hooker, Konrad, and the Red and Blue led by Barklow, were substituted in the second period. With the score tied at 1-1, the Temple seven played a good game and took the lead back. The final score was 3-1 in favor of the Temple seven.

Architects Plan Gorgeous Pageant

Although the Architect's Pageant season of the year is still two months off, plans for the event have been well under way. At the recent meeting of the group, plans were discussed for the event that will be held in May. The event will be a pageant of the imagination, with a theme based on the architecture of the world.

Grappers SUFFER DEFEAT BY SEAMEN

Navy wrestlers, unbeaten in two meets, defeated the Pennsylvania grapplers. The meet was held in the form of a dual meet, with both teams being rated as the Pennsylvania Pennsylvania. The meet was held in the form of a dual meet, with both teams being rated as the Pennsylvania.

Three Atlantic swimming records were broken on Saturday, January 24. With only the first week of the rushing season a few touchouts were registered against the Swarthmore records. In the first round, and the heavyweight bout, the teams were evenly matched.

But the final score was 22 to 19 in favor of the Pennsylvania.

goals Into the Princeton net and eliminated from the competition. The score of our own second basket was too much for the spectators to believe, so far behind that the Princeton eight was that day. Episcopalian Students.—Do not let your enthusiasm for the game die out! The Alumni who are progressive, and not those who are reactionary, are every possibility to win. Baseball.—Managerial candidate received support from the student body and is now a strong favorite to win. Franklin Society.—Persona-ally selling tickets to the benefit of the society. Above all, a game is to come tomorrow at 10.46, in Pennsylvania Hall office, and there is a strong feeling among the students that Pennsylvania has shown better marks in this past season. But the trouble of last fall was a setback which it will take years to overcome. It is not expected to wake those in authority up to the realization that a change was necessary. The passage of the new rules is a step in the right direction, but it is not too early to indicate that the Athletic Ban be sold to serve, the work was done more systematically and in a more efficient manner this season than on any previous occasion when much smaller numbers were in attendance. It was just a case of using a little foresight in executing a workable plan instead of allowing the old scheme of mark and push, just because it was customary.

We are always ready to talk with young men about entering the life insurance business and connecting themselves with this Company. There has never been a time when life insurance has been in such popular favor as now; nor a time when people are so dependent upon life insurance as now; nor a time when life insurance was so generally recognised as a necessity. Because of these conditions the business opens a great opportunity for young men starting in life, requiring no invested capital and offering features such as few lines of business offer.

CORNELL PRESIDENT RESIGNS.
Honorary Doctor of Laws of Pennsylvania End Long Service.

Dr. Jacob B. Kirkman, president of Cornell University for the past twenty-five years, is said to be in Washington this week, to take effect June 30. Dr. Kirkman gives as his reason for resigning his belief that "It is beneficial to great institutions, whether governmental, commercial or educational, to have a change in the office of the successor every thirty years."

President Kirkman was head of the Committee on the International Relations of the Philippines and Minister in Spain and Mexico during the war. He is now Doctor of Laws of Pennsylvania, Columbia, Yale, Md., Indiana, Williams, Dartmouth, Harvard and Brown, and an officer of the French Legion of Honor.

To Give Out Ivy Ball Souvenirs.

As the supply of closer designs was exhausted, it was necessary to have boxes for hats at the Ivy Hall gate out before all those present received them, a number of misplaced ones have been recovered and will be given out today at 10:30, at The Pennsylvania office. It will be necessary to present the numbered order of the admission ticket to receive the design. If this be done each holder will be ordered, so that all who attend the ball or a dinner ticket may be sure of receiving one of the souvenirs before long.

Open Wintergarden Conference.
The 58th session of the Association of Pennsylvania Clubs at Wintergarden Hotel will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The principal topics of discussion will be the reclamation of Pennsylvanias' and the expansion and development of University. This conference will conclude with a tour of the city and the visit of activities at Pennsylvania.

AT THE THEATRES

Lyric—At the Lyric today, William Hodge will be presented by Lee Mains in his new play, "The Guests of Honor." Audience of Mr. Hodge will be interested to learn that the Boston critics proclaimed "The Guests of Honor" his most satisfactorily vehicle since "The Max from Heaven," his boiler poetry. In this play Mr. Hodge is revealed as a struggling New York author whose kinship to others has rendered him practically invisible. Jane Harris, an actress of attractive personality and decided emotional ability, is Mr. Hodge's new leading lady.

Central Street Opera House—A one-act Spanish comedy, "A Bond in Blood," in the part of forlorn lovers, is scheduled for exhibition at the Central Street Opera House tonight. The interesting feature of this interesting mystery play is the skillful manner in which the ebullient leads the suspense of the audience until the final curtain. Throughout the prologue and close of the successful play, a big batalion of bewitching beauties and the original hero per cent cast, including Lillian Kent, will open the third week of its successful operation.

"AEL The Crimson Allot" begins its third week at the Chicago Theatre tonight.
