SWIMMERS PREPARE FOR YALE CONTTEST

Probably the greatest gathering of swimmers ever to be seen in Westfield Hall will take place this afternoon, when the undefeated varsity squad will meet the old Yale team in a return meet next Friday. The meet will kick off at 4 o'clock, with the varsity squad at 5 o'clock, and the complete freshman and sophomore squads at 6 o'clock. The meet will consist of three events, which will be selected by the varsity squad and will be announced later.

REVIVE SHOW OF PRIESTLY SOCIETY

Candidates are wanted for the annual Priestly Choral Society show, which will be given this year for the first time since 1914, when the last one held. The choral society, which this year has created a great sensation, will give an informal and highly artistic performance. The show is scheduled for next Sunday evening, and will consist of a variety of songs, solos, recitations, and dances. The candidates are expected to appear in their best attire and will be judged on their vocal and acting abilities.

FENCERS BOW TO DEFEAT

Defeat was announced to-day's meeting.

The following members of the group are anxious to try their hand at Intercollegiate Fencing: W. P. L., M. G., T. H., and J. T., who have been playing for some time. They hope to enter the tournament, which will be held next Saturday.
