"Rights and Privileges of Survivors

Under the War Risk Act" will be the subject of the meeting of the League in the Houston Hall advisory room on Tuesday night at 8.

The meeting will be addressed by the special request of the President.

As a matter of fact, the article is limited to all reserve men, as Mr.

Slevin and Rice have traveled through the district.

Continue Wiggler Chassis

Continuing the reformation for the international annual productions of the Yale Wigo and Yell, the district will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the President's room. The meeting has been called to discuss the various methods of disciplining the students.

The reformation has been brought about by the fact that the students have been found guilty of various forms of misconduct.

The President has called for the action of the students and has asked for their cooperation.

YALE SWIMMERS WIN

WIN PROGRAMME OUT

In an effort to win out the crown of New England swimming, the Yale swimmers meet tonight at 7:30 to complete the season. The Swimmers will attempt to maintain their position as leaders in the New England

Swimming Association.

The Yale swimmers have been closely followed by their opponents, but have managed to remain in the lead throughout the season. They have been able to maintain their position by means of combined effort and skill.

The Yale swimmers will be represented by

Coach: Dr. Philip Schrader

Swimmers: Captain: C. C. W. McEwen

R. E. Farley, H. A. White, W. D. H.

Brown, W. F. B. H. Gage, W. A.
