student body to select the speakers

for the series, Philip B. Wolfrom,

Chairman of the Committee on

Student Activities, announced

Monday.

March 13-14, 1926.

William Hill. For his first address

Mr. Hill will speak on the topic

"The Very Best of the Best, or the Loyalty of the University." The second address will be on the topic

"The Masses, the Minorities, and the Individual in the University." Mr.

Hill's addresses will be given in the auditorium of the Diehl

Memorial Building at 8:15 p.m.

Tuesday, March 13.

Which is an instance of the most successful methods of starting a successful movement, Dr. Carl

Wood, National President of the American Oratorical Association,

spoke last Thursday, March 9, in

the auditorium of the Diehl

Memorial Building. "What the Masses Are Thinking," the title of his address, was delivered to an interested audience from the podium of the auditorium. Dr.

Wood is the first man of the western educational system to come to a university in this area.

His power of expression and pointed as follows: Do Bald, Leo.

Pole, head teller; Holton, Bourne,

Sheeler, treasurer; Johnson, sighted of the students who wished to vote. It was announced that the next election would be held April

1 in the auditorium of the Diehl

Memorial Building.

Through an error it was announce that the students would meet on April 14, at 8:00 p.m. The following committees were appointed:

Nursing Board, P. M. L. Miller,

Cord, T. S. Fullerton; Educational

Board, W. H. Bates, director of University South American

College; Alumni Board, B. C. C.

Graham, '11. All committees are eligible for the spring election.

Bald is in condition. With Intelligence in his program, Dr.

Carlss to round the team into shape, a lively campaign can be expected.

WHARTON MEN

Group breaks individual shooting record in Varsity Contest

JASPER DOUGLAS JUNIOR VARSITY

By taking up points less in yesterday's game at New Haven between the Wharton and Yale teams, the University men broke the highlights record of the Intercollegiate League and completely outscored the Old Blues. The score of the last but one was 16 to 16,

and to be the highest game of the year. The University team was predicted to win by 10 points, and the result was a surprising one.

Junior basketball teams are ranked beyond a doubt in the University.

In a game that was clearly placed by the best of the three teams, the second, the Junior Varsity lost to the Yale team last Thursday night.

The score of the game was 28 to

22. The Yale team was defeated, however, and late turn was placed on the team. The final score was 28 to 22.

TENTATIVE LACROSSE SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Twelve Games to Be Played by University Men's Eight—New Practice.

Twelve games, eight of which are to be played away from home, comprise the 1935 lacrosse schedule. Although this is not to be revealed by the Athletic Association, it stands as group as follows: March 27, freshmen at Swarthmore; April 15, Haverford; April 17, Delaware at Delaware; April 21, Yale at New Haven; April 25, New York Lumber Club at New York; May 1, Antioch at Amherst; May 2, Cornell at Hoboken; May 3, Cornell at Philadelphia; May 13, Lehigh at Hoboken; May 15, Brooklyn at Hoboken; May 17, Princeton at Brooklyn; May 21, Swarthmore at Swarthmore; May 25, Swarthmore at home; May 27, Swarthmore at home. This schedule is one of the best in the year, and includes games with some of the strongest lacrosse teams in the country.

Over eighty candidates reported for the first indoor practice, held in Franklin Field yesterday. Such men as Arthur, Staff, and some other preliminary instructions began today. As the first game is held two weeks distant, the regular team will be given intensive practice. With its move as a nucleus to build up this year's team, Coach Goodrich has a promising field of candidates to choose from. For many of these men, the Red will have a remainders season.

This year a freshman team will be formed, in addition to the University junior.

A schedule including games with which the Red is likely to compete has been arranged for. To aid Coach Goodrich is heading the large number of new men, the services of the latter, Nomura, and Philip, important players of much experience, have been secured.

CALL ROICREDERS NEXT WEEK.

Coach Stewart to Organize Two Teams For Season.

Spring soccer practices will start tomorrow, on Memorial Field. Coaching plans to organize two teams. One will consist of players returning from last year's team, the other of players new to the team. The latter will have a remainders season.

To Raise $500,000 for Brown.

A recent meeting of the trustees arranged for the raising of $500,000 for Brown. The matter was placed in the hands of the Northeast Club, which will raise the money.
