UNIVERSITY SWIMMERS TO OPPOSE PRINCETON

Final Intercollegiate Contest Held Tuesday Evening at South- ern Swim Turnout.

For the final intercollegiate meet of the season, the Princeton University Swimming and water polo teams will journey to the College of New Jersey, where they will face the competitions of the University of Pennsylvania and University of Delaware. The meet is to be held Tuesday evening at the South Street Swimming Club.

The University of Pennsylvania has a trio of brilliant performers in Captain Leonard Carter, Captain A. C. Stanley Huggins, and Captain Bertrand Sprague. Captain Leonard is returning in his last meet the Red and Blue teams. He has been a consistent winner for the team and has placed in the individual intercollegiate championship for the relay and the 220-yard event. He is practically every meet, this season, a victory in to his credit. Captain Huggins is the easily placed in the 100-yard event and is a member of the relay.

The Red and Blue relay team will consist of Captain Bertrand, Morgan and Love, and their opponents will be the University of Delaware. Captain Morgan will be the starter for the Blue team. Morgan and Love will have the 100 and 220-yard events. Captain Love will take the trip: Captain Itumho, Mason, Stimson, Harris and Captain Leopold for the long yard event. Wiener will take the trip: Captain Itumho, Mason, Stimson, Harris and Captain Leopold for the long yard event.

The Freehold team will oppose the intercollegiate meet tonight, afternoon at Princeton. The following men will make the trip: Captain Sander, Green, Gardner, Woodside, Beckett, Honorides and Pfeiftich.

COMPLETE ARRANGEMENTS FOR SERIES WITH CHICAGO

Pennsylania will play a game of the series with Chicago on Saturday afternoon at Chicago Club. The two teams are to meet in the sports season according to the weather given out by the Chicago Park. The second game will be played here as Thursday, March 26, instead of the Chicago Park. The weather, if necessary, will be played in Chicago on Saturday, March 26. The weather, if necessary, will be played in Chicago on Saturday, March 26.

The University of Pennsylvania will feature the "Mask and Capers" in Captain Leopold, Shields and Cohner. It was finally pointed out that the "Mask and Capers" would be based entirely upon merit. It was pointed out that the "Mask and Capers" would be based entirely upon merit.

Dr. Mark Time, general agent for the entire series, also spoke. To make Punch and Judy more interesting for the students with room and board, a home-like atmosphere, Zorlosky, 3328 Woodland Ave., will take care of the fancy goods.

WRESTLERS PRAISED FOR CONTEST WITH PRINCETON

Having completed the last stretch of the best last night, the University wrestling team is now preparing for this match with Princeton tomorrow. The team will not have until tomorrow morning, and a light workout will be held tonight in the wrestling room.

All the men are expected to be present at this practice at four o'clock. The problem of the 125-pound class was solved last night when Bishop determined allowance. Two extra three-citizen bouts were necessary to decide the winner. Neither man seemed able to gain a decided advantage until the last few minutes. Bishop hopes to have his team in condition for the Intercollegiate match, which is on March 21.
