Berkshire Life Insurance Company
OF 14 TSFIELD, MASS.

We are always ready to talk with young men about entering the life insurance business and connecting themselves with this Company.

There has never been a time when life insurance has been in such popular favor as now; nor a time when people are so dependent upon life insurance as now; nor a time when life insurance was so generally recognized as a necessity. Because of these conditions the business opens a great opportunity for young men starting in life, requiring no invested capital and offering features such as few lines of business offer.

MANY ATTEND RED AND BLUE BANQUET

Confidence in the future of the Red and Blue was so generally expressed at the literary publication banquet last night. The dinner, which was held at the Blenheim Hotel, was attended by over fifty men, included faculty members, members of the athletic association and business men.

Finance Chairman, Clifford Stover, was host and the number of those attending was Professor Wraycott, of the English Department.

Prior to Dr. Wraycott's address several short speeches were made by members of the board. George Shover, '20 WL, business manager, offered a short address of appreciation, while another present and his hope that they would endeavor to build Pennsylvania up to what they were. John V. Loring and Frank H. Mamega spoke briefly in the place of publications, especially the Red and Blue, in the University life.

Harry Campbell, after a brief address of the importance last year, stated that with the help of the students this year and that he expected to see this country.

Dr. Wraycott pointed to the fact that in the past Pennsylvania had suffered from a lack of men prominent in the field of letters. He looked forward to the time when men now making a mark in University publications would be prominent in the literary circles of the nation.
