SCHOLLMEN’S WEEK ON CAMPUS.

Teachers invited by University to Series of Conferences.
Schollemey Week began on the campus yesterday morning, with the presentation of educational problems throughout the day, and back and dinner at the Heston Club during the intervals in the program. Special attention has been made for the quartering of some of the visitors in private homes; wide accommodations have also been secured for others at dormitories beside.
In the evening, the groups met again in large educational problems of this and administrative states were made to these conferences, which will run for a week, including daily business and sight-seeing trips to the surrounding points of interest.

Clubs Hold Joint Meeting.
Members of all the schollmen’s clubs held a joint meeting yesterday afternoon. This was the second in a series of similar meetings which the clubs plan to hold every two weeks.
