Dr. Croters Guest of Arts Association

Noted Author to Present Interesting Talk Tomorrow Afternoon in Haggin Hall.

Dr. Samuel McDowell Croters, one of the leading modern authorities on Greek dramatic and musical history, will deliver an address tomorrow afternoon. Dr. Croters, who is a member of the Board of Directors of the Academic Association in Haggin Hall, will shudder up prayers. Dr. Croters' address will be the final part of the program for the evening.

Publicity Chairman, Dr. Dana Howe, has arranged for a series of addresses by the leading scholars in their respective fields. The program will include a talk on the Greek language by Dr. W. W. H. Post, of the University of Chicago, and a talk on the history of the ancient Greeks by Dr. W. W. H. Post, of the University of Chicago.

The evening will conclude with a musical program, which will be provided by the University Symphony Orchestra. The orchestra will perform a selection from the work of Beethoven, followed by a selection from the work of Chopin. The program will conclude with a selection from the work of Brahms.

Tickets for the evening will be available at the University Bookstore, and are priced at $1.00 per ticket. The program will begin at 8:00 p.m., and is expected to last until 10:00 p.m.

Garnets to Face Steckmen To-Day

Swann will be the opponent of the Pennsylvania Carnegie teams in a double game on Franklin Field. The game will be played at 1:00 p.m., and will be preceded by a practice game on Franklin Field to familiarize the players with the field. Swann is expected to have a good team, and will be a stern test for the Garnets.

Committee to Collect $200 in Favors to Pay for Swimming Hall Celebration.

Tomorrow is "Tennis Day," the day when all members of the varsity team will "clip in" to rectangles and shore up the flank in the American football game. The committee in charge of the project will be in charge of the entire operation, and will meet at 1:00 p.m. to organize the work. The committee has been given a good opportunity to raise money for the swimming hall.

The committee is expected to raise a substantial amount of money, and will be able to pay for the swimming hall.
