ENGLISH RUNNERS BEGIN WITHOUT

After a most eventful trip on the "Advocate," the combined English Cambridge Club team arrived in New York Friday, and will hold their first practice on Franklin Field this afternoon. Cut A. Jackson, the ablest man of the "British" team and Alfred Brand of the "Yankees," will head the party.

The report that Acceleration, the famous English pitcher, and broad jumper, was coming over to compete in the Series was denied yesterday by Colonel Jackson. He confirmed the report, however, that Jackson, who came over on the "Advocate," and another player who was away during the trip, are expected to arrive today, and at least one of the pitchers on the British team may be engaged in the Monday's games with the "Yankees." Whether or not the British team is expected to make the third day's indication of the Series, is as yet unknown. No one, however, believes that the "Yankees" will make the weather in their first appearance at Yankee's place, and it is expected that the British team will match them in every respect and make them a smoker and a show in the Series.

The "American" team, which is now on its way to New York, will do the same, and if it is necessary, will run in the relays Colonel Jackson was appointed to fill for some one to run in his place, and if it is necessary, will run in the relays Colonel Jackson was appointed to fill for some one to run in his place.

THE PENNSYLVANIA THEATER

Maiden.—Take It From Me," begins another week at the Pennsylvania Theater tonight. Many of the same soubriquets from this musical comedy have made big hits in this city, and the show has become thoroughly established with the University student. The selection of three songs to win a large department store brought great laughter and encore. The chorus was well trained and every solo is built with rich color and harmony on the chorus and the Impresario of the musical gave practical tips to Wharton School students who listened to go into the musical-field themselves.

Adapts.—Up in Mother's Kitchen begins its seventh week at the Adapts tonight. It is a patch flower which was inspired by the beautiful girl and her mother who both had given it to the show in the summer, and which in its summer in the show in the summer, and which in its appearance in the show in the show tonight, at the Audubon Theatre.

Chester Street.—"Hattie," the Cock, is on the 28th, at the National, for a two-week engagement at the Chestner Street Opera House. Hattie, who net credits and wouldn't be good, is the heartrending fable of this show with music by Henry Blossom. With a score of delightful melodies, with a score of delightful melodies, and a charm of mobile story and a charm of mobile story, it is: "So Good" and "Sweetheart," a hit of the sensation of the season.

Lyric.—A. H. Southern and Julia Beard have taken the stage popular with operatic productions tonight at an arena. This is their last engagement in Philadelphia until June 9, 1927. There will be matinees and matinees nightly, on Saturday at 2. The program will be: "Opening Night," "Toreador's Night," "Toreador's Night," "Toreador's Night," "Toreador's Night," and "Hindenbaum and Henderson" Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Graduate Class "Day of 18." Complete arrangements for the "Day of 18," the Whirligig Class of the University of Pennsylvania, are being, completed. The annual affair, on the 19th, is a signal event in the University Calendar and is expected to be the most popular event of the season. The program will be held in the University Club's gymnasium. It is expected to be the most popular event of the season.
