With a number of prominent speakers appearing for the first time on campus at Pennsylvania, the student body of the University of Pennsylvania, has been eagerly awaiting the announcement of the names of the speakers. The name of the first speaker to be announced was Miss Dorothy L. Calvert, who is a student at the University of Pennsylvania.

The Wood Club at the University is a successful organization, having only been formed during the past year. Therefore, it has been difficult to make any promises to stand on the ballot, as the only candidate for the presidency of the University is Dr. John H. Dorrer, President of the University.

A special note should be made of the Wood Club's success. The club is a very active one and has been very successful in the past.

THREE OF THE MEN ARRESTED.

Mr. Jeff R. B. Reader, of the University of Pennsylvania, was arrested by the police on Wednesday, May 30th, for the purpose of assisting in the suppression of a student demonstration. Mr. Reader was a member of the senior class of the University and had been a leader in the student movement for several years.
